Mind of Nicholas Cowy Refuses to Yield to Treatment

Prof. Rieber Gives Up Noble Task in Despair

BERKELEY, Nov. 28.—Years of ministration on the part of Professor C. H. Rieber of the Department of Philosophy have failed to achieve the mental reincarnation of Nicholas Cowy, a lad who has been under his care. Professor Rieber has now appealed to the Berkeley police to act as a medium for the young man's transference to the penal authorities.

During the three years that Cowy has made his home with the Riebers, Professor Rieber has applied every know method of psychological treatment to cure the boy of certain mental deficiency which he has displayed. Professor Rieber's efforts have been in vain.

BOY IS TAKEN IN HAND.

It was Mrs Rieber who finally took an interest in the boy Crossing on the ferryboat one day she found him reading a paper at an angle with his eyes, which denoted an optical defect She entered into conversation with him, learned that he had no home and asked him to live with herself and husband

Binet and physiological test enabled Professor Rieber to determine the boy's mental status He found it necessary to send the boy first to a physician for correction of such physical faults as he found in the throat nose and eyes of the young man He thereupon commenced the application of scientific means of correction for the boy's undeveloped mentality Many times Professor and Mrs Rieber were close to despair in their task but the scientific interest in the study led them to continue

HIRED TEACHER

Professor Rieber hired a teacher for the boy and he was able to make some little progress in stenography and printing Inability to remember whole phrases, [illegible] and dropping of words without ever missing them had never been overcome During a recent trip to the East, Prof Rieber sought out the parents of the boy in Chicago and found them intelligent but poor people Returning to this city, Professor Rieber decided that further efforts on the boy's behalf were useless and he resigned him yesterday to the care of the police The police have referred the matter to the probation officer and it is expected the boy will be declared incompetent and a guardian appointed for him

JOHNSON AT PROGRESS LUNCHEON

May Speak of New Party's Move During Banquet

Governor the Guest at Forum in Secluded Banquet Room

When it became known early this forenoon that Governor Hiram W. Johnson was to break bread at another assemblage of Progressives this time in Oakland, it was faintly prophesied that he would speak plainly regarding his intentions as far as the governorship and senatorship are concerned. If he told the fourteen luncheon guests at the Forum today just what the future, as he saw it, held out for the Progressive cause in California, it had not been divulged by any of the party by the middle of the afternoon.

Charles E. Snook had invited some of the leading Progressives of Oakland to attend a luncheon given by Snook in honor of the Governor in one of the secluded banquet rooms of the Forum. The party gathered at 12:45 o'clock. Besides Governor Johnson and the host there were present

Mayor Frank K. Mott, former State Senator John W. Stetson, Charles E. Snook, County Treasurer M. J. Kelly, City Auditor George E. Gross, State Senator A. H. Breed, Assemblyman Edward J. Tyrrell, City Clerk Frank M. Smith, Harrison S. Robinson, Dr H. B. Mehrmann, Guy C. Earl, Supervisor John F. Mullins, G. B. Daniels and George C. Pardee.

Snook stated before the party sat down for the luncheon that he had no idea as to the trend which the discussion would take, but there was no supposition on the part of any that the talk would stray away from the all-absorbing topic of the Progressive situation in this state and Governor Johnson's plans

COLLAPSES AT DIVORCE HEARING

Pretty Mrs. Louis A. Eike Creates a Sensation

Husband on Stand in Defense of Wife's Charges

While her husband was reciting from the witness stand various instances wherein he alleged that she had called him harsh names, Mrs. Madelyne Eike, young and pretty wife of Louis A. Eike, whom she is suing for divorce, collapsed in Superior Judge Murphey's courtroom with her laughing 6-months-old daughter, Doris Jane, held tightly in her arms The proceedings were interrupted for 15 minutes while court officials and women friends who were witnesses in the case, rushed to her side. She was carried into the judge's chambers, where she was restored to consciousness

After a morning's session, during which time both sides to the suit listened to the testimony of a number of witnesses, the case was submitted for judgment

FIRTATIONS CHARGED.

While Mrs Eike was standing in her dooryard one day at 821 Twenty-second street there was a bill poster across the way sticking up a theatrical advertisement, according to the story of Mrs Anna Spencer, sister of Eike "Oh you Julius Caesar," Mrs Eike is said to have called to him. On another occasion the sister said that plaintiff had "flirted with a postman" who was passing and that she had known of her to return home in an automobile which stopped a short distance from the house.

In her complaint for divorce, which was filed last September, Mrs. Eike charges her husband with cruelty She says that he thrashed her and accused her of being friendly with other men. She asked the cutsody of the child and $25 per month alimony.

LEAVES HER HUSBAND.

That, on account of her husband's alleged harshness toward her, she was forced to leave him and take up her residence with her mother shortly prior to filing the complaint, is one of the matters on which she bases her ground for action When she left she took with her the little daughter over whose custody they have failed to agree. The defendant contended that she had neglected the child, but witnesses said that they always found it clean and neat.

Dressed in a light blue modish suit with a dropped brim hat of the same color, and carrying the daintily clad baby in her arms, the complaining witness presented an attractive appearance Her blue eyes and blonde hair harmonized with the coloring of her habilaments and she occupied herself mostly with attentions to the child as she sat in the courtroom

FATHER HOLDS BABY.

During the session today she permitted the father to hold the baby for a short space of time, but he relinquished her when court adjourned The couple were married May 29, 1912, and plaintiff says that her husband frequently was late to his meals, which action on his part provoked a share of their troubles.

REGIONAL RESERVE BANKS PUZZLING

Currency Bill Discussion Includes Question of Locations

WASHINGTON, Nov 28.—Location of regional reserve banks to be established by the new currency bill became a matter of pressing importance when the Democratic conference resumed work today. The insistence of Senator Hoke Smith and Senator Bacon of Georgia that the territory tributary to Atlanta would not do business with a regional bank at New Orleans may force the conference to at least informally outline districts and locations for the banks While the administration bill proposes eight regional banks, the conference may finally increase them to 10. The bill that passed the house provided 12

KILLED BY APE, IS DEFENSE THEORY

Poe's Weird Tale May Be Repeated in Coming Craig Trial

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 28.—Opening what promises to be one of the bitterest legal fights ever waged in the local courts, involving a weird tale of a woman's murder by an ape, in which the details of Poe's "Murder in the Rue Morgue" are said to be repeated in real life, the trial of Dr William B. Craig, head of the Indiana Veterinary College, accused of the murder of Dr. Helen E. Knabe, opened today. A special attorney, hired by the women of the state, is assisting the prosecution, and today many prospective jurors were examined. The attorneys battled to and fro. It will probably take two days to fill the box

The prosecution holds that the college man murdered the woman following the breaking of his engagement to her, by cutting her throat. She was formerly the state pathologist. The defense suggests that one of the monkeys which she kept for vivisection may have cut her throat after watching her operate in a like manner in the vivisection room. Several other theories, including one that she [illegible] feud, are also advanced.

The prosecution, headed by Eph Inman, the special attorney, and Prosecuting Attorney John E. Cheney, declares that Dr Craig has been identified as the man seen in the rear of the woman's apartments on the night of the murder, that the engagement between them had been broken off just before and that there is other corroborative evidence. The defense has several lines, including evidence of probable suicide.

BRAVE MEN GO DOWN AT SEA

Searchlights Play in the Wrong Direction During Confusion

Sailors Get Rattled as Emergency Arises on President

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 28—Lack of discipline and inadequate equipment were charged today by passengers of the Pacific Coast steamship President to be responsible for the loss Wednesday night of a passenger, the fourth officer and two seamen in a heavy blow off the California coast. The company stands by its officers and declares they did their duty, according to their best judgment.

An investigation was begun today on the arrival of the steamer [illegible] K. Bulger, United States supervising inspector of steam vessels, who said the President would have to be held until the hearing was concluded The President was scheduled to sail late today for San Diego

F. H. Van Koolbergen vice-president and chief engineer of the Holland-Indian railroads, who is touring America with his wife and son, told of the horror the passengers felt in seeing the four men drown before their eyes

"We had just finished dinner on Wednesday evening and had gone on deck," he said, "when a cry of 'man overboard' startled us A heavy sea was running and it was cold, so that not more than 20 or 30 of us were on deck.

COULD HEAR SHOUTS.

"I was standing close to the spot where the man was washed overboard. Stewards, sailors and officers began running up and down the deck We could hear the man shouting.

"I grabbed a life preserver and threw it in the direction of the voice We heard the man say 'I've got it'

"The first mate ordered a lifeboat lowered. There seemed to be confusion as to which of the sailors belonged to the boat. Finally the mate got hold of seven men and shouted 'that's enough'

"After the boat was swung out on the davits the forward fall dropped but the after fall held. The boat hung perpendicularly by the stern and was crushed against the ship's walls.

"Four men of the crew of seven clung to the tackle and were saved, but the others were spilled into the sea

"Again began the fusilade of lifebelts A great cry for a searchlight and for lifelines, which the men called heaving ropes, went up. Not a lifeline small enough to be thrown or heavy enough to hold could be found.

"The officers rushed aft and lowered another lifeboat. By this time it was nearly 8 o'clock, and the first man had gone overboard at 7:28. I looked at my watch at the time

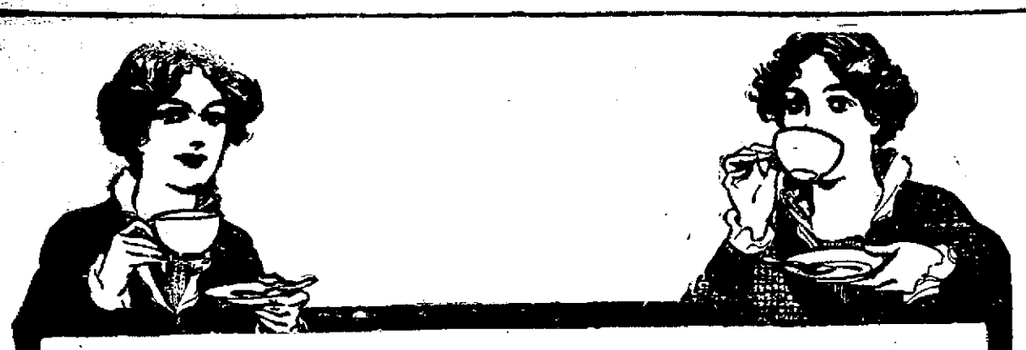

"The others overboard could be heard talking plainly. I could hear

BUNCO GAME IS LURE FOR TAILOR

Charles Thompson Victim of Ring Operating on Ninth Street.

The lure of "easy money" cost Charles Thompson, a tailor, $235, he says, through the wiles of bunco operators. The bunco ring, he charges, operated from rooms in a local hotel at Ninth and Franklin streets.

Thompson was told stories of money made over the poker table. A man named McCoy and a second called "Brownie," it is said, told stories of gold being thrown about by a miner named Wallace who had come to the bay region from Nevada, and who was wasting his fortune in the gay life of the cafes.

Thompson says he was finally induced to attend the poker game, and was introduced to "Wallace." A game was started. It had been framed in advance that "Brownie" should lose money to "Wallace" and should get out of the game. He should then tip McCoy and Thompson as to the contents of Wallace's hand and they should play accordingly.

On the first night the scheme did not work well, as Thompson lost. Again trouble came and Thompson lost $180. A third night was planned, but Thompson became suspicious, and the group decamped. Thompson says he met "Brownie" and McCoy in the cafes of the lower part of Oakland.

CREW FAILED TO ACT IN EMERGENCY

Passengers Say Men of the Steamer President Had No Discipline.

Shane, the fourth officer, saying to one of them, 'Don't worry, lad; we'll get you out safe.'

AT LAST THE LIGHT.

"Then the searchlight came on. It played on Shane and a sailor, buoyed in a circle of lifebelts. Shane kept calling: 'Hurry, captain, for heaven's sake, or we're gone.'

"For some reason the searchlight was turned elsewhere. We could still hear voices. Shane was shouting more and more faintly that the wind was carrying him away. We hung around for 40 minutes, and then we steamed away."

Will A. Barnes, formerly of the Bellingham Herald, in a signed statement published here today, says:

"While three seamen and the passenger were yet in the water the ship's officers attempted to hold the President in position by backing her engines. The churning of the propeller around the men at the stern soon caused them to succumb and their cries ceased as they were drawn into the vortex."

MORE CARELESSNESS CHARGED.

When the second lifeboat finally returned, writes Barnes, the sea was running so high that the volunteer crew was unable to fasten the davit falls fore and aft, and a 12-inch stream of water from the condenser poured into the lifeboat alongside. No order from the bridge to stop this flow was given. Among this volunteer crew of five were the ship's bartender and a passenger. They were knocked flat by the stream from the condenser but managed to swing themselves inboard by the falls.

LEEDS, England, Nov. 28.—Premier Asquith's speech yesterday at the meeting of the National Liberal Federation, which was eagerly awaited because it was expected to throw light on the question of how far the negotiations for a settlement of home rule by agreement had been successful, disappointed those who were sanguine of a peaceful issue.

APE ALLEGED TO BE MURDERER

Strange Defense Offered in Veterinary College Mystery at Indianapolis.

Indiana, was one of the most baffling in the annals of police history.

On the morning of October 24, 1911, the body of Dr. Knabe was found lying in bed with the head almost severed from the body.

A thorough search of the premises was made and no knife or other sharp instrument with which the doctor's throat could have been cut was found. This led to the belief that Dr. Knabe did not come to her death by suicide, although the fact that she was in financial difficulties was brought forth as a motive for self-destruction.

The kimona which the doctor was known to have worn when arising from her bed to answer the calls of patients during the night was missing, and other articles of light apparel could not be found.

During the resultant police investigation the doctor's assistant was put on the stand, but nothing could be learned from her. Dr. Knabe's cousin, Augusta Knabe, a school teacher, could shed no light on the mystery. Other witnesses testified that Dr. Knabe was known as an estimable woman and a physician of high standing.

HEARD WOMAN SCREAM.

Several witnesses who had passed the house on the night the crime was supposed to have been committed testified that they had seen a man running from the apartment after they had heard a woman's scream. The testimony of these people varied to some extent, but they were agreed that the screams had come from the apartment at about 11 o'clock on the night of October 23.

The only further developments in the history of the case until June, 1912, were the interrogations of a Greek in Chicago, who was seen in the vicinity of the apartment house on the night the crime was committed, and the confession of a sailor in Maine, who was afterwards found to be drug-crazed and who had never been in Indianapolis.

The women of the state of Indiana took up the case and subscribed a fund of $2500 for the employment of private detectives. In June, 1912, the grand jury was asked for an indictment against Dr. William B. Craig, dean of the Indiana Veterinary College, of which Dr. Knabe was an instructor at the time of her death. Craig and Dr. Knabe were supposed to have been engaged and were known to have quarreled shortly before the time of the doctor's death. Detectives asserted that on the night of the crime Dr. Craig came home after 11 o'clock, changed his clothing and went out again.

KIMONA IS FOUND.

In the apartment of Alonzo M. Ragsdale, an undertaker who lived in the same apartment house with Dr. Knabe, and who attended to her burial and was the administrator of her estate, was found the missing kimona and other wearing apparel. The kimona was submitted to a chemical analysis and was found to have been washed clear of human blood stains by some chemical solution.

At that time the case, in the opinion of the grand jury, was not strong enough to warrant the return of indictments against the two men. On December 31, 1912, Ragsdale and Craig were arrested, Dr. Craig being charged with the murder of Dr. Knabe. Ragsdale was held as an accomplice.

Dr. Craig is a widower, about 40 years of age, and was born in Scotland. Ragsdale is about 54 years of age and has a wife and five children.

NEYLAN 'KEG OF DYNAMITE,' SAYS SNOW

Health Board Secretary Replies Warmly to Head of Control Board.

Says Resignation Is Not Expression of Criticism of Governor Johnson.

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 28. — Branding John F. Neylan, president of the State Board of Control, a "keg of dynamite," under Governor Johnson, Dr. W. F. Snow issued a warm reply to Neylan yesterday. Board of Health, is a principal figure in a battle royal that has raged since Snow resigned the other day.

While loyal to Governor Johnson, Snow says that his resignation is not an expression of criticism of the Governor, but one of protest against an impossible condition of affairs due to the hampering action of the Board of Control, to which the Governor's eyes has not been opened.

SEEK SNOW'S SERVICES.

[illegible] than three years the American Federation of Sex Hygiene has sought the services of Snow, for which it offered $6000 a year, which is twice what he is receiving at the present time.

Dr. Snow's statement in part follows:

"It is evident that Mr. Neylan is prepared to resort to any subterfuge in order to divert attention from the issue involved in my resignation. This is not one of expenses, nor accounts, nor of authority of the Board of Control to dictate what expenditures of the Board of Health are advisable and necessary in the pursuance of its duties.

AGITATES WRONG QUESTIONS.

"The items mentioned in Mr. Neylan's statement have never been at issue. He is silent upon the question of whether his position concerning expenditures for bubonic-plague control and enforcement of the new water-supply laws is tenable. Nor does he refer to the fact that the Board of Control has undertaken to say whether the enforcement of the pure-food laws will be benefited by California being represented in a national conference of the committee of five called by the Secretary of Agriculture.

"The situation I have presented to the Governor is that the Board of Health has been intrusted with important and varied responsibilities of far-reaching influence; that the budget having been decided upon and appropriations made, the Board of Health must be permitted to make its own plans for performing its duties.

REVISION IS INTOLERABLE.

"That it should be expected to submit its plans to the Board of Control for revision as to their fitness for accomplishing the specified purpose is intolerable. If the Governor does not have confidence that the members of the Board of Health are fully competent to administer wisely the duties entrusted to them he should request their resignation.

"My difficulties are not with the Governor. The Board of Health has always accepted loyally the Governor's decisions upon health bills and appropriations presented by the Legislature for his signature. I have tried to make clear to him during interviews on these matters that expenses, bookkeeping details and minor differences with the Board of Control relative to printing, etc., are only accumulative of significance.

"My final decision to resign is not an expression of criticism of the Governor, but one of protest against an impossible condition of affairs to which the Governor's eyes have not been opened.

"The statements made by Mr. Neylan, relative to discrepancies, shortages, foolish expenditures, etc., cannot be substantiated.

CAPITAL LIKES OAKLAND LAWS.

Complaints of Dr. R. A. Archibald, city meat inspector, that the City of Sacramento had inadequate meat inspection laws which interfered seriously with the operation of the local ordinance, have borne fruit. In a letter to Commissioner F. C. Turner today, Commissioner of Public Health and Safety Charles A. Bliss of the Capital City announces that a new inspection law similar to the Oakland ordinance has been put into effect in Sacramento.

Constipation

When the bowels do not move freely it shows that the liver is inactive, and the bile, instead of being eliminated by the intestines, is taken up by the blood. In consequence the internal organs are deranged and you have a bilious attack. After frequent attacks the skin becomes sallow and rough. You are troubled with headache, coated tongue, bad breath, sour stomach, loss of appetite and you feel out of sorts. The contents of the alimentary canal should be well evacuated every day.

Great Bean Pot Special

Another sensational Saturday event for shrewd housekeepers. This time, Bean Pots! Selected from that beautiful "Ramafin" pottery, which is so very popular and lasting. Outside of pot and cover is a rich mahogany red color, contrasting with a pure white lining. Capacity, two pints. Size, four and three-quarter inches in diameter by four and one-quarter inches deep.

We have an unusually large supply of these pots and we think they will last through the day and night—but to be sure, come early. No telephone orders accepted and no deliveries of this article.

MEXICANS PURSUE MADERO'S FRIEND

Member of American Colony Given Refuge on Battleship Michigan.

proposal was made to put him aboard the steamer Esperanza for Vavana. To this the agents of the line objected when they learned the circumstances of the case, saying that they were not willing to face the peril of complications with the Mexican authorities.

The Mexican officials learned today that Woodyard was aboard the Michigan but made no demand for his surrender.

It is understood that the officials gave Woodyard an intimation that he would be accorded a prompt trial but he chose to remain on the Michigan in preference to a possible long preliminary confinement in the fortress.

FRIEND OF MADERO.

Woodyard is a personal friend of the Madero family, but it is not known that he is affiliated with them politically. He is a graduate of West Point and an engineer by profession.

The steamer Asian, which left Tampico last night, reports all quiet in that city. Business is being transacted there in a normal fashion. There are large forces of rebels in the outlying districts but none within three miles of the city.

The British flagship Suffolk arrived off Tampico yesterday morning and sent a boat ashore to make official calls. The Suffolk was preparing to depart at nightfall, but her destination was not known.

John Lind, who went to Tampico with Rear Admiral Fletcher, informed Consul Canada by wireless that he expected to arrive at Vera Cruz today.

U. S. TROOPS MOVING.

SALT LAKE CITY, Nov. 28.—Fort Douglas was the scene of busy preparation today for the departure of the Twentieth United States Infantry to El Paso, Tex. Orders to proceed to the border were received late yesterday and it is expected the troops will depart tomorrow morning. The regiment numbers 775 enlisted men and 50 officers.

TAKE COWARDLY VENGEANCE.

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 28.—Blood and family ties did not avail to check the vengeance of constitutionalists when federal officers fell into their hands at the capture of the City of Victoria, capital of the State of Tamaulipas. State as well as federal officials were executed.

Among those killed was a young civilian, cousin of Enrique Caballero, who is the leader of the rebels at Victoria and one of the chief lieutenants of Venustiano Carranza. He was condemned to die because he had helped the federal troops defend the city.

The young man's mother, who is an aunt of the rebel officer, went on her knees and begged that the life of her son be spared. Caballero had his cousin brought from the prison and stood in front of a firing squad of revolutionists, who shot him down before his mother's eyes.

Details of the capture of Victoria, which occurred a week ago, reached Mexico City today. General Antonio Rabago, the federal commander at Victoria, on evacuating the city, proceeded with his troops to the southwest in the expectation of making a connection with the federal column commanded by General Rubio Navarrete, who was trying to go to the assistance of the garrison of Victoria.

The rebels, however, sent out a flying squadron to meet General Navarrete's troops and check their progress. The fate of both General Navarrete's command and that of General Rabago is still unknown here.

The constitutionalist troops entered Victoria during the afternoon of November 19, immediately after the federal troops had evacuated the city, three days. The rebels, it is said, pillaged and set fire to houses and murdered many citizens. Private residences as well as stores and government offices were sacked and a number of Spanish residents were killed, including, it is said, the Spanish consul.

A further movement of rebel troops from the district of Victoria toward Tampico is reported in messages received through railroad agents. The telegraph wires were cut today at Gonzales, about 60 miles northwest of Tampico. Train service between Tampico and Victoria has been suspended.

MOVEMENT OF WARSHIPS.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—Secretary Daniels today ordered Rear Admiral Badger, commander in chief of the Atlantic fleet, to send the battleships Connecticut, Kansas and Ohio of the fourth division from Mediterranean ports to the east coast of Mexico, as reliefs for the Louisiana, Michigan and New Hampshire of the second division. The fourth division will sail for Mexico on December 1, and probably will reach Vera Cruz about December 20 or 21.

At the navy department it was said that the Louisiana, Michigan and New Hampshire would leave for home ports immediately on the arrival of the vessels from the Mediterranean. The battleship New Hampshire is due in Vera Cruz today from Tuxpan.

BRITISH CRUISER ARRIVES.

VERA CRUZ, Nov. 28.—The British cruiser Suffolk, flagship of the West Indian squadron, arrived here today.

MAY SEND COTTON TO MEXICO.

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 28.—American cotton in limited quantities is to be admitted into Mexico free of duty unless railroad communication with the Torreon cotton district be restored within a week, according to a statement made today by the minister of fomento, Leopoldo Rebollar. The object of this measure is to tranquilize the textile workers, who see destitution staring them in the face owing to threatened closing of the mills because of the lack of raw cotton.

Only such quantities of American cotton as are necessary to provide temporary needs for industries are to be permitted to enter free.

HIGH WIND MENACES FRAIL CRAFT OF AIR

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 28.—Harry Christoferson furnished the real thrills of the aviation meet at the exposition grounds yesterday Christoferson was making his initial flight when his engine began to miss fire. The wind was blowing at its strongest at the time and his [illegible] dangerous. In order to keep it from turning completely over he had to run out and sit on one of the wings until he came close to the water and the hydroplane steadied

In the tail end of the southwest gale which swept the coast Wednesday afternoon and night the Christofferson group of aviators yesterday held a crowd of 5000 people continually agape at their daring stunts

Features of the meet were a race between Silas Christofferson and Frank Bryant, the death dip by Silas Christofferson, and a flight by Blakesly over the exposition grounds.

A novelty of the afternoon was the relay race never attempted in the air before. Owing to the high wind, this event was extremely hazardous, but not as spectacular as it was intended to be. The two Christoffersons, Roy Francis, Bryant, Blakely and Rybitzki were the racers.

COLONEL D. C. JACKLING ARRIVES FROM SEATTLE

SAN FRANCISCO Nov 28 — Colonel D. C Jackling, the copper-mining and smelting operator of Salt Lake City, who was forced to return to Seattle Tuesday after starting to San Francisco in his new steam yacht Cyprus, arrived here last night on the Shasta Limited, accompanied by F G Janney a business associate, and H. B Tooker, his secretary. Colonel Jackling said the report that he had fallen seriously ill with pneumonia had happily been somewhat exaggerated. He was taken with a severe cold, aggrevated by bronchial trouble, he said, and his friends had insisted on his return to Seattle. He is now almost recovered.

A business engagement here today with M. V Mackelvie, junior member of the banking house of Hayden Stone & Co. of New York, which could not be postponed, caused him to turn back from the prospects of fighting through [illegible] delays, and take the more certain railroad route, said Colonel Jackling. His new yacht behaved beautifully, he said. The Cyprus will arrive here in a few days, and Colonel Jackling proposes to spend a several days' vacation in San Francisco

PROTEST IS VICTORY OF ADMIRALTY LORDS

LONDON, Nov 28.—An astonishing story of a strike among the lords of the admiralty is to lead in this week's Truth." Winston Churchill, first lord of the admiralty, brought the storm upon himself by personally interfering in a personal grievance on the part of a junior officer. [illegible] ported to Whitehall through the usual official channels, so the sea lords respectfully remonstrated with their chief, and then, the remonstrance not being favorably received, resigned in a body. This had the desired effect, for the affair evidently has blown over

MAYOR REFUSES TO PROCLAIM HOLIDAY

ATLANTIC CITY Nov 28. — "There are too many people with nothing to be [illegible] yesterday by Mayor William Riddle for his failure to issue any Thanksgiving proclamation. Riddle, who is wealthy, recently announced that his family would buy no eggs as a personal blow at the high cost of living.

"I always like to say what is in my mind," said Mayor Riddle, "and I am afraid this year it would be foolish to issue a Thanksgiving proclamation. I feel that there are so many men out of work and the money market is so tight that it would be a sort of mockery to extol the blessings of this day unless conditions warranted it

"So many people have such little cause for Thanksgiving that I did not issue the proclamation."

KNOWLAND WILL URGE REES PLAN

Congressman Leaves for Capital; to Ask Immediate Survey of Territory.

Ready to press to the finish the Rees project, the preliminary report of which is already on its way to Washington, Congressman Joseph R. Knowland leaves, late this afternoon, for the capital to attend the remaining days of the congressional session. He will at once, according to his announcement this morning, appear before the board of river and harbor engineers, asking for an immediate survey of the territory concerned in the Rees plan.

"I will follow the Rees preliminary report closely," he declared this morning, "and will lend all my efforts at once to gain a survey. When that, and the detailed report is in, we will be ready to push the matter to the final conclusion. Congressman William Kettner, who has supported the harbor with me and knows our needs, will be a valuable ally. I believe we will be able to rush the decision.

"Besides this I will aim to secure as large an appropriation as possible for the southern harbor plan, embracing estuary improvements, out of the regular rivers and harbors appropriation bill, this money to be used for what is known as the southern harbor in contra-distinction to the northern, or Rees project.

"I will meet on December 3 with the rivers and harbors congress, made up of delegates from all States interested in large appropriations for river and harbor facilities. Here I am to speak on the topic of the Pacific coast harbors and the bearing of the Panama canal's coming completion on these. I will describe the harbors of the coast, including Port Los Angeles, which that city maintains 20 miles away. Of course, I shall deal exhaustively with Oakland's harbor and shall tell of the development plans under way. I shall also tell of the facilities of every port, tell of capacities, dockage space and such details."

Congressman Knowland will return to his home for the Christmas holidays, and will leave again for Washington on January 1. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Knowland and his family on this trip. They will not take the present trip which is short and solely for urgent business.

TWO HOLDUPS NET FOUR THUGS $1.65

Return Gold Watch to One Pleading Victim; Take Tobacco From Another.

Two hold-ups early last night netted four highwaymen 1.65, a small sack of tobacco and a package of cigarette papers. The first man held up was Lance Hoffman of 856 Thirty-eighth street. Two young men, both of them with their faces covered with blue handkerchiefs, accosted him while on his way homeward, shortly before 9 o'clock, at Thirty-eighth and West streets.

The younger and shorter of the two placed the muzzle of a revolver at his chest, while the taller admonished him in gentle terms to make no noise, relieved him of $1.40. He filched a gold watch from Hoffman's pockets, but the victim pleaded that it was a present from his mother, and he was permitted to the timepiece. Both highwaymen were [illegible].

R. L. Daniels of 3567 Grove street was the second victim. He was held up at Twentieth and Adeline streets by two roughly-dressed men, each armed with a gun. They relieved him of 25 cents, a package of tobacco and cigarette papers.

The police were immediately notified by both victims, but the highwaymen made good their escape.

Aviator Takes Parents On Thanksgiving Flight

SANTA ANA, Cal., Nov. 28.—Aviator Glenn Martin took his father and mother, both of them well beyond the usal age of aviation enthusiasts, for an aeroplane trip of nearly 100 miles yesterday. To make the flight still more memorable, Thanksgiving dinner was included.

Seating his parents beside him in his double-passenger aeroplane, Martin started off for a Thanksgiving outing at Long Beach, some 45 miles. There they landed on the beach and later went on across San Pedro harbor to San Pedro, where they were the guests of Frank Garbutt, president of the Los Angeles Athletic Club, at dinner. Garbutt made a flight with Martin several days ago.

After sitting at a table surmounted by a turkey whose wings weren't successful enough rivals of the aeroplane to insure him a peaceful old age, the Martin family returned home to Santa Ana.

Steward Cone Receives Condolence for 'Fritzye'

Within a few hours after his pet canary "Fritzye" committed suicide by hanging herself to the wires of her cage yesterday, Steward Cone at the Emergency hospital commenced to receive the condolences of his friends over the telephone, after they had read of the strange case in the papers. Patrolman J. G. Wallman, who drives the police ambulance at times, and who has frequently lingered at the hospital to listen to the famous warbler went one better than offering sympathy. He tendered another bird, and offered to deliver it in a couple of days.

"Could I get it today?" asked Cone anxiously. "It is pretty lonely around here without "Fritzye." I'll be after it this afternoon."

So he went and got the new singer. Officer Wallman, who is also a bird lover explained that he had others, and would not miss parting with one.

Seawell's Case Is Continued by Court

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 28.—Attorney Joseph Dunne, representing Harry W. Seawell, the artist and son of J. M. Seawell, requested the continuance of the statutory charge against the defendant when the case was called this afternoon. Dunne explained that he was engaged in the trial of a case in another department and would be unable to proceed with the preliminary examination.

Seawell is accused by Olga Anderson, an artist's model, who claims that she was subject to indignities while posing in his studio at California and Polk streets.

The case was continued one week.

ANNOUNCE BABY DAUGHTER.

Motor Ship 'Siam' To Dock in Oakland

With Oakland as its new port of call, the "Siam," the first of the Asiatic Company's motor ships to arrive in this city, will dock here toward the end of the month, now being en route from the Orient. The ship is one of a great fleet which plies from Copenhagen, Denmark, through the Suez canal, to Japan, China and India and on to California. It will be the first motor ship, or ship without a smokestack, to navigate the globe.

Anouncement of the ship's arrival was made today by Secretary A. A. Denison of the Chamber of Commerce, who was today notified by the company of its plans. The visit of the vessel is the result of information furnished regarding Oakland which the Danish consul a year ago secured from the chamber. The East Asiatic Company is planing to put six ships into the field.

ROLPH STARTS EAST TO FIGHT FOR WATER

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 28.—Mayor Rolph left today for Washington, where he will urge before the senate the claims of San Francisco to a source of water supply in the Hetch-Hetchy valley. During his absence the chairman of the finance committee of the board of supervisors will act in his stead, as provided by the city charter.

SCALP ITCHED AND BURNED

Scarcely Any Hair on Head. Terrible Itching. Also Bothered With Pimples and Blackheads on Face. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured Both Troubles.

Greenwood, Ind. — "First my hair began to fall, then my scalp itched and burned when I became warm. I had pimples on my scalp; my hair was falling out gradually until I had scarcely any hair on my head. I couldn't keep the dandruff off at all. My hair was dry and lifeless and I lost rest at night from the terrible itching sensation. I would pull my hair off and scratch my head any place I happened to be.

"For several years I was bothered with pimples on my face. Some of them were hard red spots, some were full of matter, and many blackheads. I was always picking at them and caused them to be sore. They made my face look so badly I was ashamed to be seen.

"I tried washing my head with Cuticura Soap, dried without rinsing, then put the Cuticura Ointment on and rubbed it into the scalp. I applied the Cuticura Soap and Ointment the same each week until cured. Three months' use of Cuticura Soap and Ointment [illegible] clean as can be." (Signed) C. M. Hamilton, Sept. 24, 1912.

A Staple Medicine For Every Family

No Self-Respecting Group of People Should Be Without a Good Family Laxative

It is inconceivable in this day of general intelligence that any family would be without a simple remedy for the minor ills of life, for often by giving such a remedy in time a serious disease can be frustrated and a life saved.

For example, if at the first sign of cold a simple laxative-tonic like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin were given, the beginning of a serious lung affection or of a typhoid fever might be avoided. And also in headaches, nervousness, etc., a small dose of this remedy would relieve the congestion and replace distress with comfort. Mothers give it to tiny infants and little children, and grown people take it with equally good effect.

Thousands of good American homes are never without it, among them the home of Mrs. C. A. Wright, 1831 Pas-had considerable trouble raising little Lawrence, three years old, but after regulating his bowels with small doses of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, he began to thrive and she has had no further trouble with him. They use it generally in her home.

Syrup Pepsin saves the health of the family, and it saves doctor's bills. It is a guaranteed cure for any form of stomach, liver and bowel trouble, constipation, indigestion, biliousness, gas on the stomach, headaches, drowsiness after eating etc. Have no hesitancy about giving it to any member of the family, however young or old, for it contains nothing injurious to the youngest person.

A bottle can be obtained at any nearby drug store for fifty cents or economical and is bought by those who have already convinced themselves of its merits. Syrup Pepsin users learn to discard pills, salts, cathartics and purgatives generally, as they are too great a shock to any average system.

Families wishing to try a free sample bottle can obtain it postpaid by addressing Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 419 Washington street, Monticello, Ill. A postal card with your name and address on it will do.

THANKSGIVING OBSERVED IN MEXICO

American Colony Received by Wife of U. S. Charge d'Affaires.

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 28.—The Americans in Mexico joined their countrymen at home in observance of Thanksgiving day. Mrs. O'Shaughnessy, wife of the American charge d'affaires, received the members of the colony at the embassy. Among her callers were some of the representatives of the other powers. Special services were held at Christ church and the Church of San Lo-attended by Mr. O'Shaughnessy. The Protestants were addressed by Dr. Sidney Conger, who, with the consul general, Arnold Shanklin, beside him in the pulpit, read the president's proclamation. It is estimated by the consulate that there are now about 1500 Americans in the capital, of whom 300 are women, as compared with 8000 under normal conditions. The members of this depleted colony dined today for the most part at the restaurants and clubs because many of the homes have been broken up by the absence of the wives. The most pretentious effort to keep up the spirit of the day was at the American Club, where a few tables were occupied by Mexicans of the better class, notwithstanding the predominance of American colors and decorations.

BERLIN COLONY CELEBRATES.

BERLIN, Nov. 28.—The Thanksgiving dinner of the American colony last night was attended by about 500 per-

N. Thackara, presided. Although Ambassador Gerard was unable to be present, as he had gone to Hamburg, Mrs. Gerard and the secretaries of the embassy were present, as were also the exchange professors, Paul Shorey of Chicago and Archibald C. Coolidge of Harvard.

PENFIELD GIVES DINNER.

VIENNA, Nov. 28.—The American ambassador and Mrs. Frederick Courtland Penfield gave a large Thanksgiving dinner to prominent American residents last night. The guests included the American consul general and Mrs. Charles Denby, Professor George Stuart Fullerton of Columbia University, New York, and Mrs. Fullerton and Major Mathew A. Delaney, Medical Corps, United States Army.

Armless Man Saves Canoist From Death in Lake Michigan

CHICAGO, Nov. 28.—Stanley Martin, an armless man, yesterday saved Henry Carlson from drowning. Carlson's canoe overturned in Lake Michigan, a quarter of a mile from shore. Carlson swam to the breakwater, but was too exhausted to lift himself to the top. No one but Martin was in sight.

The armless man hooked one leg over the piling and extended the other to Carlson's assistance. Carlson held on until he had regained enough strength to drag himself to the top of the breakwater.

NO TREES TO BE BROUGHT BY LAKE

Schuenemann Family Will Not Take Any Chances With Fate.

CHICAGO, Nov. 28.—No Christmas tree ship will be brought into Chicago this year by members of the Schuenemann family. Last year Captain Herman Scheunemann and his crew of 12 went down in Lake Michigan while bringing their Christmas tree harvest to market.

His widow, Mrs. Barbara Schuenemann, and his daughters are carrying on his work and had planned to bring another Christmas tree ship into port this year, but the storms of two weeks ago changed their plans and this year's harvest will be brought to Chicago by rail.

The widow, who has superintended a gang of men cutting the trees in Northern Michigan, returned to her and declared she would not tempt fate.

"If we had sailed from Manistique at the time we had first planned, our fate would have been the same as that of my husband and his crew last winter," she said.

CATTLEMAN MISSING; SISTER SEEKS HIM

[illegible] asked the police to assist in the search for her brother, Bert Brink, who was to arrive in Oakland from Nevada last night. Young Brink came to California with a shipment of cattle, and was to have met his sister at Sixteenth street station last night, after delivering the shipment. He failed to appear, and Miss Brink, who lives at the Clay house, communicated her fears to the police. Brink is described as 20 years of age, five feet nine inches in height, and weighing 145 pounds.

Joseph Flores of Hayward has asked the police of the bay region to search for his son Clarence, who is 14 years of age, but who is described as six feet one inch in height, and 190 pounds in weight. The boy is of dark complexion, with black hair and brown eyes.

CLAY AT 14TH AND 15TH OAKLAND

OAKLAND'S BOYS AND GIRLS

New Plan Outlined for Junior Republic Affair

William R. George, founder of the Junior Republic and the national director of the National Association of Junior Republics, and who frequently visits Oakland, has started a new plan for the making of American citizens. The junior municipality is the latest title for the cities where the junior boys and girls elect a mayor and city officers.

According to the scheme each junior official will co-operate with an adult officer in the enforcement of all the laws and ordinances.

There is now a movement to secure "votes for girls." William R. George declares that he would give the girls the ballot just as they have in the junior republics.

Recently a "petition for independence" was drawn up by a number of representative girls and boys at a meeting of "the common council," where William George explained his plans which were adopted.

The petition follows:

"We the undersigned, being the youth of Ithaca, N. Y., between the ages of 15 and 21, do respectfully call to the attention of our elders that, although not of age, we nevertheless feel we have reached a point where we could and should actively participate in the government of our city.

"We regard as merely a legal fiction the assumption that we are infants in all matters relating to the government of our community.

BOYS IN WAR.

"We respectfully call attention to the fact that in time of war boys between the ages of 15 and 21 are sent to the front to fight for their country and are frequently as officers placed in positions of peculiar responsibility and danger. Is it not self-evident that if youths can thus honorably acquit themselves in time of war, they could and should assume the less dangerous and onerous responsibilities of peace?

"We find in the annals of history that from time immemorial youths of our age have, when placed in positions of trust, acquitted themselves creditably. Before the age of 21 Alexander the Great was not only the ruler of Macedonia, but the dominant power in all Greece; Charles James Fox became a member of the British Parliament before he was of age, and the younger Pitt became Prime Minister of Great Britain when he had scarcely passed his majority. In short, there is abundant evidence both in the past and present that youth can and will rise to responsibility when it is placed upon them.

WOULD FORM CITY.

"Such being the case, we do hereby resolve to accept the suggestion of William R. George, the founder of the Junior Republic, and the invitations of Mayor Reamer and the Common Council and organize ourselves into a Junior Municipality in order that we may at once actively serve our city as junior citizens and thereby prepare ourselves for more efficient citizenship as adults.

"We hereby pledge ourselves to assist in the enforcement of all laws and ordinances of the city, particularly those directly relating to boys and girls and their interests.

"We further pledge ourselves that when elected to any office in the Junior Municipality we will give our full and faithful co-operation to the adult official holding the corresponding office in the city government and will discharge our duties solely with reference to the welfare of the whole city. If given the duties and the privileges of junior citizenship, in accordance with the plan for a Junior Municipality devised by our friend, William R. George, we pledge our sacred honor to strive to be worthy of the great trust placed upon us."

With his collie, Master Harold C. Lee of East Oakland is frequently seen on the public thoroughfares and in the playgrounds, where he has many playmates. His dog is his devoted companion and pet.

Many youngsters are displaying an interest in the animals, especially dogs, whom they attempt to train.

The pet show which was recently held in Alameda attracted hundreds of boys and girls who were partial to the birds as well as the cats and dogs.

High School Hop to Be Brilliant Affair

Committees have been appointed for the semi-annual hop to be given by the juniors of the Oakland High School Friday evening, December 5, in the high school gymnasium. The arrangements for the affair are now being perfected and the dance promises to be one of the most enjoyable social events of the semester. The music will be supplied by the St. Elmo Powell's orchestra, which is rehearsing a repertoire of popular selections.

The students who will aid on the committee are Charles Hill, chairman of the arrangement committee; Helen Roeth, Ralph McIntyre, Marion Bunnell, chairman of the decoration committee; Josephine Hughes, Eva Gray and "Don" Badgley; John Gray, chairman of the art committee; Maline Weniger, Carlton Kendall and Noms Schindler.

GATHER LITERATURE TO SEND TO HOSPITAL

Dozens of children are now collecting magazines and periodicals for distribution at the Alameda County Infirmary and the local hospitals. Among the tots who are striving to supply the demands for literature is Charles Hall Birnbaum, 6-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Birnbaum of East Oakland. He has been an inspiration to a number of boys and girls to preserve journals for the stricken ones who frequently make requests for books.

AMERICAN WOMEN SHOW MUCH TASTE

Originality Predominates Over Them, Is Decision of Noted Belgian.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 28.—"American women are wonderful and original in their taste for clothes, but they are also excessive. Especially so when staid matrons with gray hair attempt to wear the dainty frocks of a school girl."

This is the criticism passed on American women by Etienne de Sadeleer, law student of Belgium and son of Louis de Sadaleer, prominent statesman of that country, who is today visiting in Los Angeles.

The young student is enthusiastic in his praise of American cities and American ways, but condemns American women for their manner of dressing. He says, however, that he considers them ahead of European women in their styles.

"I really believe the Americans are the foremost dressers of the world," he asserted today. "It is here new creations are tried, after which if they are popular they are introduced in gay Paris and elsewhere abroad."

De Sadeleer is accompanied by his sister. They came from Europe and arrived in New York with their father, who left them there to continue to Port au Prince, Hayti, where, as special envoy of the Belgian government, he has been asked to settle a point of arbitration between Germany and the Haytiian government.

On the voyage from Europe they were passengers on the Kroniand, which rescued 110 refugees from the ill-fated Volturno.

Etienne de Sabeleer describes the burning ship as both terrifying and beautiful, and is emphatic in his upraise of Captain Kzeiholm, hero of the Volturno.

INFANT'S REMAINS IN BUNDLE ON FERRYBOAT

The discovery of the remains of an infant, which had been wrapped in a newspaper, and placed in a card board box to be dropped into the bay from the deck of a ferryboat, was reported to the police, and morgue last night by State Railroad Policeman John Wall. Wall found the parcel lodged on the ledge of the ledge of the guard rail on the lower deck of the ferryboat Berkeley. It had evidently been dropped from the upper deck, but had caught on the guard rail ledge.

The bundle was found after the Berkeley had entered the slip at the Oakland mole on the 8:40 trip last night. The passengers had already left the boat, and no inquiry was possible among them. The remains were taken to the Oakland morgue, and an inquest will be held. Nothing was found in the box of papers to give a clue as to the identity.

A naval officer I know canceled a lot of engagements last week in order to devote the time to his dentist.

"I am going on a long cruise," he said, "and I know the value of good teeth. Good teeth mean good health afloat or ashore and a man can't do his work well unless he has good health."

In the army and the navy, and in all great industrial spheres the value of good teeth is being recognized. Statistics prove that sound, clean teeth, preserve health and promote business efficiency.

The twice-a-year visit to the dentist and the twice-a-day use of Colgate's Ribbon Dental Cream, the efficient, deliciously flavored dentifrice, insure sound clean teeth, better health and better looks.

You too should use COLGATE'S RIBBON DENTAL CREAM

INSIDE READY; NOW FOR REST!

Big Cathedral Is Completed All But the Exterior Section.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—The many years' work in the building of the great Cathedral of St. John the Divine, which has proceeded in the odd manner of building the interior first—that is, the dome-covered nave—has come to a standstill because of indecision as to the exterior design. It is announced today that the novel method will be employed by letting the public render a verdict on the two places which had been tentatively adopted for the exterior.

Duplicate designs are to be placed on public exhibition in Synod Hall on the cathedral grounds and the architectural league building and the public critics are invited to send their views to Bishop Greer or to any of the trustees of the cathedral.

The original plan has as a feature a great central tower ending in a spire. A later design presents two companion spires in place of the one central tower and minor towers to the number of seven, while the entire exterior is practically a mass of miniature towers. The original design is, with the exception of the central tower scheme, generally plain, while in the second design hardly a square foot of exterior space is left uncovered with ornament. Bishop Greer himself is a strong advocate of the new design as more inspirational than the old one. Advocates of the old plan declare that the great central tower is the more impressive and that the two main spires of the new design lose their effect from the mass of minor towers and ornaments.

SUFFRAGETTES TO FACE PRESIDENT

Will Demand Expression of His Views on Their Cause.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—Another suffragist delegation is to visit the White House next week in an effort to obtain an expression from President Wilson as to his stand on the suffrage question. Plans for the visit have already been made at the headquarters here of the National American Woman Suffrage Association, but no definite date has been selected.

"We intend to obtain a definite statement of the Democratic administration's attitude toward woman suffrage," said Mrs. Jessie Hardy Stubbs. "We will try to see the President at his convenience, but we are going to see him just as the New Jersey delegation did.

"Our national convention will be meeting next week at the psychological moment when the President will be reading his message to congress."

Plans for the visit to the White House are in charge of Miss Florence King of Chicago, who, it is understood, is mapping the questions that are to be put to the chief executive. Senator Helen Ring Robinson, member of the Colorado legislature, also will take an active part in the proposed interview with the President.

Already many of the delegates to the forty-fifth annual convention have reached Washington to take part in the preliminary meetings.

FINDS IDEAL LAWS FOR HOUSING LABORERS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—American laws to promote sanitary housing of laboring people are ideal and if fully enforced would result in conditions unequaled in another country, in the opinion of Dr. Bartholomew Nemeyi, who is here with a commission from the Hungarian government to investigate this subject. The doctor came to Washington after visiting Cleveland, Chicago, Pittsburg, Philadelphia and New York. He thinks the slums in the United States are not as bad as those of Europe.

"I saw what were supposed to be the worst in New York," he said today, "and could duplicate them in almost any European city. I think the worst I have seen are in Chicago, particularly those inhabited by the stockyard workers."

Dr. Nemeyi remarked that a great obstacle to the proper enforcement of sanitary housing laws in America was "the still frequent control of government by political machines."

EX-MAYOR McGUIRE TO ANSWER TO INDICTMENT

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—A cable message received here last night from James K. McGuire, former Democratic mayor of Syracuse, N. Y., announces his intention of sailing today from San Juan, Porto Rico, for New York to answer to the indictment found against him here this week by a grand jury, charging violation of the law forbidding solicitation of campaign contributions from corporations. McGuire is accused of having demanded money for the Democratic state campaign from the Union Oil Company of California in return for an alleged promise that the company's asphalt would be purchased by the state or by contractors for highways.

McGuire in his message alluded to his indictment as "an indictment of the fight betwen the asphalt companies," and said he would "answer effectively" upon his arrival here.

DRINKS WITH STRANGER; DIAMOND PIN TAKEN

George J. Croll, of 1600 Wood street, met an affable stranger in a saloon in West Oakland last evening, and had several drinks with him. The stranger bought most of the drinks, but when Croll arrived at his home he discovered that his new-made friend had taken his diamond scarf pin, valued at $25. He reported the theft to the police.

A burglar entered the rooming house of Mrs. E. T. Reynolds, 630 Seventeenth street last night. He ransacked all of the rooms in the place, and secured $2 in coin and clothing valued at $40.

SAVE AN EXTRA TEN FOR CHRISTMAS

Instead of paying out $10 as an investment in rent and fancy fixtures of any of the extravagantly conducted street-level clothing stores tuck that $10 away in your inside pocket and keep it there until Christmas. The holiday season is coming, and every dollar comes in handy at that time. This might be poor advice if it were not for the fact that you can buy the same identical Suit or Overcoat in any of our three big second floor stores in Los Angeles, San Diego and Oakland at $15 for which you would have to pay $25 in a street-level store.

YOU CAN'T TAKE A MARBLE COLUMN HOME IN YOUR POCKET

There's every reason in the world why you should have one wrapped up to take along, because after you have traded with any of the extravagant street-level clothing stores for a while, you have paid for at least one column in the store. The same is true of yards and yards of rich hangings, hundreds of gilded chandeliers, millions of square feet of mosaic flooring in the various stores, all of which the public has paid for; but which the Dear Public is only allowed to to look at and cannot get.

CHEER FOR MONROE DOCTRINE POLICY

British Official Endorses Rule at Thanksgiving Dinner.

LONDON, Nov. 28. — The Thanksgiving dinner of the American Society here last night was noteworthy because of the pronouncement of the British Government's indorsement of the Monroe doctrine by Viscount Haldine, Lord High Chancellor. Three hundred and fifty American men and women, with a large number of British guests, were present, and they cheered Lord Haldane's words again and again.

Robert N. Fairbanks, president of the society, proposed "The King," and Lord Haldane proposed "The President of the United States."

"I recently made a visit to the United States," Lord Haldane said, "and came back not only with a vivid recollection of the cordial welcome I received, but with a deep sense of the high ideals the British and American nations hold in common—the high ideals of citizenship of the two countries."

Referring to the President, he said:

"Before he became President, Mr. Woodrow Wilson was a thinking man and a moralist. In studying his career, I cannot fail to be impressed by his detached character, and find that he has not ceased to be a thinker and a moralist because he has become the holder of a great office."

Speaking of the Monroe doctrine he said that the United States considered herself responsible for the liberties of the small nations of that hemisphere. He could see what was in the mind of the President of that time—that the responsibility rested with the United States to secure good government and fair treatment for those countries.

"I am not sure that any one should speculate upon the interpretation of that policy," continued the High Chancellor, "but I have thought myself at liberty to say what I have. It is true indeed that a high spirit and a high aim have been brought into the policy of the United States in its dealings with adjacent countries, and it is because the President has taken the attitude he has—a step which none can but admire, what ever its consequences may be—that I propose good health to Mr. Woodrow Wilson the President and Mr. Woodrow Wilson the man."

Sir John A. Simon, the Attorney-General, proposed the health of the American Ambassador, Walter H. Page, and declared him to be the worthy successor of his predecessors. He said:

"America and England have given their best and their worst to each other. America has sent us ragtime; we have sent you militant suffragettes."

Professor A. B. Alexander, chairman of the American delegation to the international conference on safety at sea, proposed a toast to "Thanksgiving day." Lord Kintore and Colonel Sir Claude MacDonald responded to "Our guests."

Lord Kintore spoke of the coming celebration of the centenary of peace.

FINDS NEW WAY TO RIPEN DATES

Department of Agriculture Experiments With Simple Method.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—A new and important addition to the fruit crops of California and neighboring states is promised by the Department of Agriculture which is experimenting with a simple method of ripening dates. Hitherto the lack of an economical method of ripening the fruit has prevented extensive planting and cultivation of date palms.

The new method was accidentally discovered by Walter T. Swingle, the date expert of the department. It was found that a slow ripening process was necessary to obtain the best results. Further experiments demonstrated that an air-tight container in which the fruit could be kept for about ten days at an even temperature gave the desired flavor to the fruit.

Degler Moor date palms were introduced into Arizona in 1890, but it was found that because of the dry atmosphere the fruit would not ripen on the trees, although there was more than the requisite amount of heat. It is said by officials of the Department of Agriculture that the new method of ripening will make possible the extensive planting of date palms in the southwest.

ANTI-JAPANESE MOVE IN FORMOSA STARTED

TOKIO, Nov. 28.—Confirmation has been received of the conspiracy of the island of Formosa to overthrow Japanese rule there. The plot was widespread and the instigators planned to organize an army of 100,000, massacre the Japanese and restore Formosa to China.

How To Heal a Stubborn Abscess

A Home Method Sure to Restore Flesh to Natural Health.

Here are some very valuable facts for all who have any blood trouble with external sores.

Do not cover any sore so as to interfere with perspiration and the formation of protective scabs. Keep it clean and bandaged. If it is a stubborn case, flush your blood with S. S. S. This famous blood purifier works wonders. And you can easily give your blood a good, thorough cleansing by using S. S. S. There is no need for anyone to be despondent over the illness of blood impurities. No matter how badly they attack the system or how unsightly becomes the skin, just remember there is one ingredient in S. S. S. that so stimulates the cellular tissues throughout the body that each selects its own essential nutriment from the blood.

This means that all decay, all breaking down of the tissues, is checked and repair work begins. S. S. S. has such a specific influence on all local cells as to preserve their mutual welfare and afford a proper relative assistance to each other. More attention is being given to scientific medicine than ever before, and S. S. S. is the highest achievement in this line.

Do not fail to get a bottle of S. S. S. to-day. If your abscess is of such a nature that you would like to consult a specialist, write to the medical department, The Swift Specific Co., 214 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

Beware of any attempt to sell you something else for the blood. Many people have been imposed upon by having some mineral mixture palmed off on them. Ask for S. S. S. and insist that S. S. S. is what you propose to get.

GUARDS' OFFICERS MUST WEAR TILES

Cannot Approach Buckingham Palace Unless Arrayed as Ordered.

LONDON, Nov. 28. — The recent announcement that officers of the guards regiments would be required, when not in uniform, to wear black frock coats, and silk hats when in the neighborhood of Buckingham Palace, is causing some debate in social and military circles as to the aim of the new order.

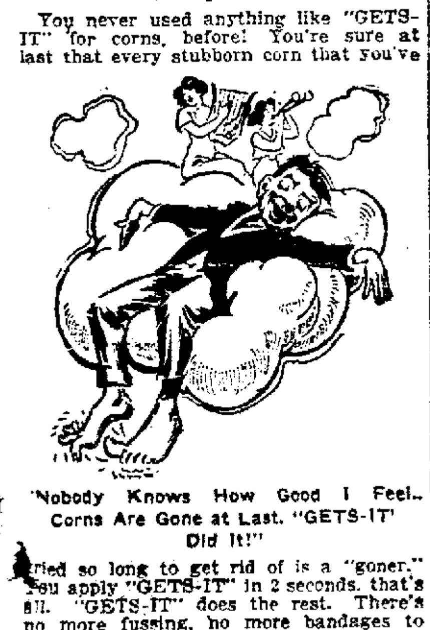

The British officers as soon as he goes off duty, has been accustomed to don civilian clothes, including ordinary derby hats and even caps. The order for the silk hats was issued by Major General Sir Francis Lloyd, the new general officer commanding the London District, and the question has been raised whether the intention is to live up to the traditions of the Guards Regiments that they should be leaders of fashion in times of peace. It is also advanced that people look to officers of the Guards to keep up their reputation for smartness both on and off parade, and that to see an officer in London dressed like a chauffeur or groom is a violation of the best traditions of the brigade of guards.

On the other hand, it is advanced by those who have been aroused by the order, that no laws are unchangeable; that the motor car and the growing popularity of golf have changed all the laws of fashion and that to insist upon silk hats in London is barely less extreme than to demand a revival of knee breeches, satin coats, lace ruffles and three cornered hats.

"GETS-IT" Is a Wonder for Corns

No Fuss, No Pain, Sure and Quick. Nothing Like It. "Gets" Them Every Time.

You never used anything like "GETS-IT" for corns, before! You're sure at last that every stubborn corn that you've tried so long to get rid of is a "goner." You apply "GETS-IT" in 2 seconds, that's all. "GETS-IT" does the rest. There's no more fussing, no more bandages to fix, no more salves to turn the flesh red and raw. No more plasters to get misplaced and press on the corn. No more "pulling," no more pain, no more picking and gouging, no more razors.

"Nobody Knows How Good I Feel. Corns Are Gone at Last. "GETS-IT" Did It!"

"GETS-IT" stops pain, shrivels up the corn, and the corn vanishes. "GETS-IT" never fails, is harmless to healthy flesh. Warts, calluses and bunions disappear.

"GETS-IT" is sold at drug stores at 25c a bottle, or sent on receipt of price by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago. Sold in Oakland by The Owl Drug Co.

MUSEUM BUSY WITH GORMANDIZING SNAKES

Curator C. P. Whitcomb of the Oakland museum and Bill Swope, one of the star boarders at the city prison, agree on one thing—that snakes are, to say the least, undesirable. The only difference is that Swope's snakes were born of the imagination, stimulated by Thanksgiving cheer, while Whitcomb's were regularly hatched out of eggs and can't be driven away with a prescription composed mainly of bromide and acetephenatid.

Whitcomb has eight snakes and, with eggs at 70 cents a dozen, they are as bad as so many white elephants. Live snakes, he declares, do not pay, especially when they have appetites. Besides paying for eggs there is an extra milkman's bill to pay, and one man is busy all day scouting up enough mice to keep "Yellow Bill," the gopher snake, and "Mike Rattler" in the food they like. "Mike" is always hungry and sits up and rattles for his supper, rests a moment and then rattles for more.

Whitcomb has engaged a dozen small boys who conduct daily mouse hunts for his pets. If dinner is late, Whitcomb says, care must be taken to keep the rattler from eating one of the grass snakes.

PRIMARY SCHOOL WILL RELIEVE CONGESTION

SAN LEANDRO, Nov. 28.—The new primary school, which will be built and ready for occupation in North San Leandro by the beginning of next year, will serve a double purpose, according to Principal Guy Smith. Besides saving the pupils in the Northern end of town from walking a long distance to school, the new building will relieve congestion, which exists in the grammar school. An increase of 12 per cent over that of last year is recorded in the number of pupils attending the grammar school, and the capacity of the school has been somewhat taxed to accomodate the new pupils. Only $800 is being expended on the construction of the primary school, which will be only a temporary building.

SCOTTISH BOWLING CLUB IN CONTEST

Practice Tournament Game at Lakeside Park Draws a Good Attendance.

Notwithstanding Wednesday night's heavy southeaster, which precipitated nearly an inch of rain in Oakland, enough of the members of the Oakland Scottish Bowling Club mustered early yesterday afternoon at the bowling green of Lakeside Park for practice. The park men had mown the green on Tuesday in anticipation of the national holiday, and the south end, which has not been previously used for nearly a year, was found to be in such a superior condition that the rinks used yesterday afternoon were laid out on it in preference to the more seasoned turf of the north half, for the reason that the latter may be needed to use.

Full four-handed teams played in competition in a practice game on the south rink, skipped separately by J. Patullo and George F. McMath.

Patullo's team consisted of A. Ballingall, J. Moir, Jim Smilie and J. Patullo (skip).

Its opponent was composed of Paton, Andrew Proctor, Robert Dalziel Sr. and George F. McMath (skip).

Following was the score at the close of 21 ends played, two bowls to the player:

McMath team—
101 010 023 210 022 000 403—22
Patullo team—
010 101 100 001 100 311 020—13

On the other rink the score of the opposing teams was as follows, three bowls to each player:

L. G. Burpee, H. Hepworth, Alex Brown (skip)— 014 100 100 001 030 100 300—15
Frank Brown, Robert Dalziel Jr., Robert Howden (skip)— 100 022 013 120 303 041 063—32

On Saturday, weather permitting and the green in condition, as it is expected it will be, the final of the tournament for the Taylor prize will be played off between W. Weir (skip) and George B. M. Gray and James B. Low (skip) and Robert Dalziel Jr. and the rinks will probably be laid out, for the first time in about a year, north and south.

Yesterday afternoon there was a good attendance of spectators, and a large attendance will, in all probability, be present to witness the final contest in the tournament on Saturday afternoon if the weather is favorable.

COMMISSION TO GOVERN INDUSTRIES PROPOSED

NEW YORK, Nov. 28. — The proposal that a national inter-state trade commission fashioned along the lines of the inter-state commerce commission, should be formed to deal with problems arising from large industrial corporations will be one of the important subjects to be dealt with by the National Civic Federation at its meetings to be held here December 10 and 11, according to the bulletins sent out here. The proposal has been the subject of a long report by the federation's department on regulation of industrial corporations.

The department has investigated the suggestion that the size of industrial corporations should be limited, and has tried to get the best opinion as to what this limit should be in the event that limitation is considered desirable.

FIREARMS MAGNATE HURT IN AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT

HARTFORD, Conn., Nov. 28.—Colonel C. L. F. Robinson, president of the Colt Fire Arms Company of this city, was seriously injured in a rear end automobile collision here yesterday and three members of his family and a friend received minor injuries.

Colonel Robinson, with his wife, his daughter, Elizabeth and son Francis, and a friend were on their way to church in a limousine when an automobile driven by Martin V. B. Stevens of Hartford struck them from the rear. No one in the Stevens machine was hurt.

ASKS $145,000,000 FOR BIGGER NAVY

Estimates Sent to Appropriation Committee Seek Two Battleships.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28. — Estimates Secretary Daniels has sent to the House Appropriations Committee ask Congress to vote $145,000,000 for the naval establishment in the next fiscal year. His estimate is $5000 below that of last year, and yet proposes the building of two battleships at $15,000,000 each, eight torpedo boat destroyers and three submarines. Many of the details of the estimates are along the lines of the last naval appropriation. The House Naval Affairs Committee contains large navy and small navy adherents. A one-battleship program was successful last session. The Naval Affairs Committee will meet Tuesday to report favorably the militia pay bill and the bill for a council of national defense. Both bills were approved by the naval committee in the last Congress. Chairman Padgett will urge their passage in the House at the coming session.

The proposed council of national defense would be an advisory body, in which the Secretaries of State, War and Navy, chairmen of the military and naval affairs committees of both houses of Congress, the chief of staff of the army and certain high officers of the navy would be members. Its function would be to report to Congress on legislation for military defense.

The militia pay bill is designed to place the naval militia on the same basis of relation to the navy as the National Guard occupied to the army. It proposes an elaboration of the present naval militia by which the Federal Government would give aid to the States by appropriations, the loan of small ships and detailing of naval officers.

Sufferers from Lung Trouble are often misled in the belief that nothing will save them. Rest, fresh air, wholesome food and regularity in habits do much in aiding to restore health, but something else is needed. Many people who have taken Eckman's Alterative have testified that it was this medicine that restored them to health. Read this:—

Weldon, Ill.

"Gentlemen: Through your instrumentality I have been saved from a premature grave. On December 14, 1904, I was taken with Typhoid Pneumonia, which developed into Lung Trouble. I was sent to Fort Worth, Texas, and later to Canon City, Colo. After being there two weeks my physician informed me that my case was hopeless. Three weeks later I returned home, weighing 103 pounds, the doctor having given me no assurance of reaching there alive. On July 14, 1905, I began taking Eckman's Wonderful remedy for Lung Trouble. Today I weigh 158 pounds. I am stout and well and can do any kind of work about my grain elevator."

The High Price of Meat.

A number of empirical remedies for the high price of meat are proposed. One pundit says that the remedy is a law to punish farmers and butchers for slaughtering calves for veal. Other schemes are advocated, equally idle. The cheapest beef ever enjoyed by our people was furnished by cattle grown on the open range in the arid and semi-arid West. The natural forage produced on that range was of the highest nutritive value. It grew on ground useless for any other production. But it was occupied in common by cattle rangers, and of course was overstocked and years ago the forage began to decline. It was plain that the capacity of the range to carry stock could be preserved only by selling or leasing it in suitable areas to the cattlemen, so that each freeholder or leaseholder would understock his range and thus renew its forage.

The matter was considered in a convention of the International Live Stock Association at Denver, and a bill was drawn to provide a leasing system, and was introduced and referred to the committee on public lands in the lower House of Congress. This bill provided ample protection for the homesteader and mining prospector in case any mineral or agricultural land was found in a grazing leasehold. The committee had extensive hearings on the bill, which are published in a volume which should be interesting reading just now. The proponents of the bill showed that without such a law the growing of cattle herds on the range would soon cease, and as a result the production of cattle would be driven to high-priced agricultural lands and beef would so advance in price as to finally get beyond the means of a great number of our people. The protests came from the East, the first being from the Tailors' Union in New York City. Others followed. They denounced leasing as a scheme of "the bullionaires" to get control of the rich farming lands of the West that should be reserved for the homes of the people.

The Agricultural Department favored the bill and offered to assist leaseholders in reseeding the ranges with alfileria, burr clover, bunch, gamma and other wild grasses. But the roar of ignorant protest rose above all the pleadings of reason and experience, and the bill died on the files because members of Congress had not the courage to be guided by the similar experience of Texas and Australia. What the proponents of the bill foretold has come to pass. The range is gone. It is desert again where formerly millions of cattle fed and fattened for the market, and beef, the only red meat eaten three times a day without satiety, has risen to such a price that its enjoyment every day is impossible to people of moderate purse.

It is an economic law that when one food article rises in price it is followed by all similar articles that may be used as its substitute. So we have mutton and pork more than doubled in price in the same period. In this situation the same classes that ignorantly protested against the lease bill are heard roaring about a meat trust, and demanding that the slaughter of calves be penalized. If they had consulted reason instead of ignorance and prejudice, the range cattle would have increased with the population and beef and its substitutes would still be within the reach of all.

The men who saw the present situation coming were the wise men of their day and generation, but they were the victims of contumely and vicious misrepresentations, and those who despitefully used them are now paying the price of their folly.

There is a fine flavor of rhodomontade in Huerta's dispatch to Paris announcing that conditions in Mexico are improving and that the authority of the federal (Huerta's) government is being rapidly restored. And this on the heels of successive defeats. It is on a par with the statement made a few days ago by Huerta's newspaper organs that the United States had at last decided to recognize Huerta as president of Mexico. If the rebels gain a few more victories the Huerta organs will probably announce that Carranza has submitted and that Uncle Sam is on his knees begging for mercy.

Protecting Game by Killing Joy.

Lord Macaulay said the Puritans were opposed to bear baiting not because it was cruel to the bears, but because it gave pleasure to the spectators. It is in much the same spirit that our game laws are enforced. The raid on the cold storage room of the St. Francis Hotel is an example of a technical enforcement of the law in a way that does not protect game from slaughter, but does annoy people and deprive them of a pleasure which harms no one, not even game.

The law forbids any person to have more than twenty-five ducks in his possession at any one time. This statutory provision was enforced in the case of the St. Francis Hotel in violation of the spirit and purpose of the law. By a narrow interpretation of the letter of the law, a number of the hotel's guests were put to embarrassment by having ducks confiscated which they had themselves brought to the hotel to be cooked for their Thanksgiving dinner.

The hotel had twenty-two ducks, three less than the legal limit, of its own on hand. But guests of the hotel had brought thirty-four of their own to be cooked and served. These ducks were treated as the property of the hotel and confiscated on the pretense that the game law was being violated.

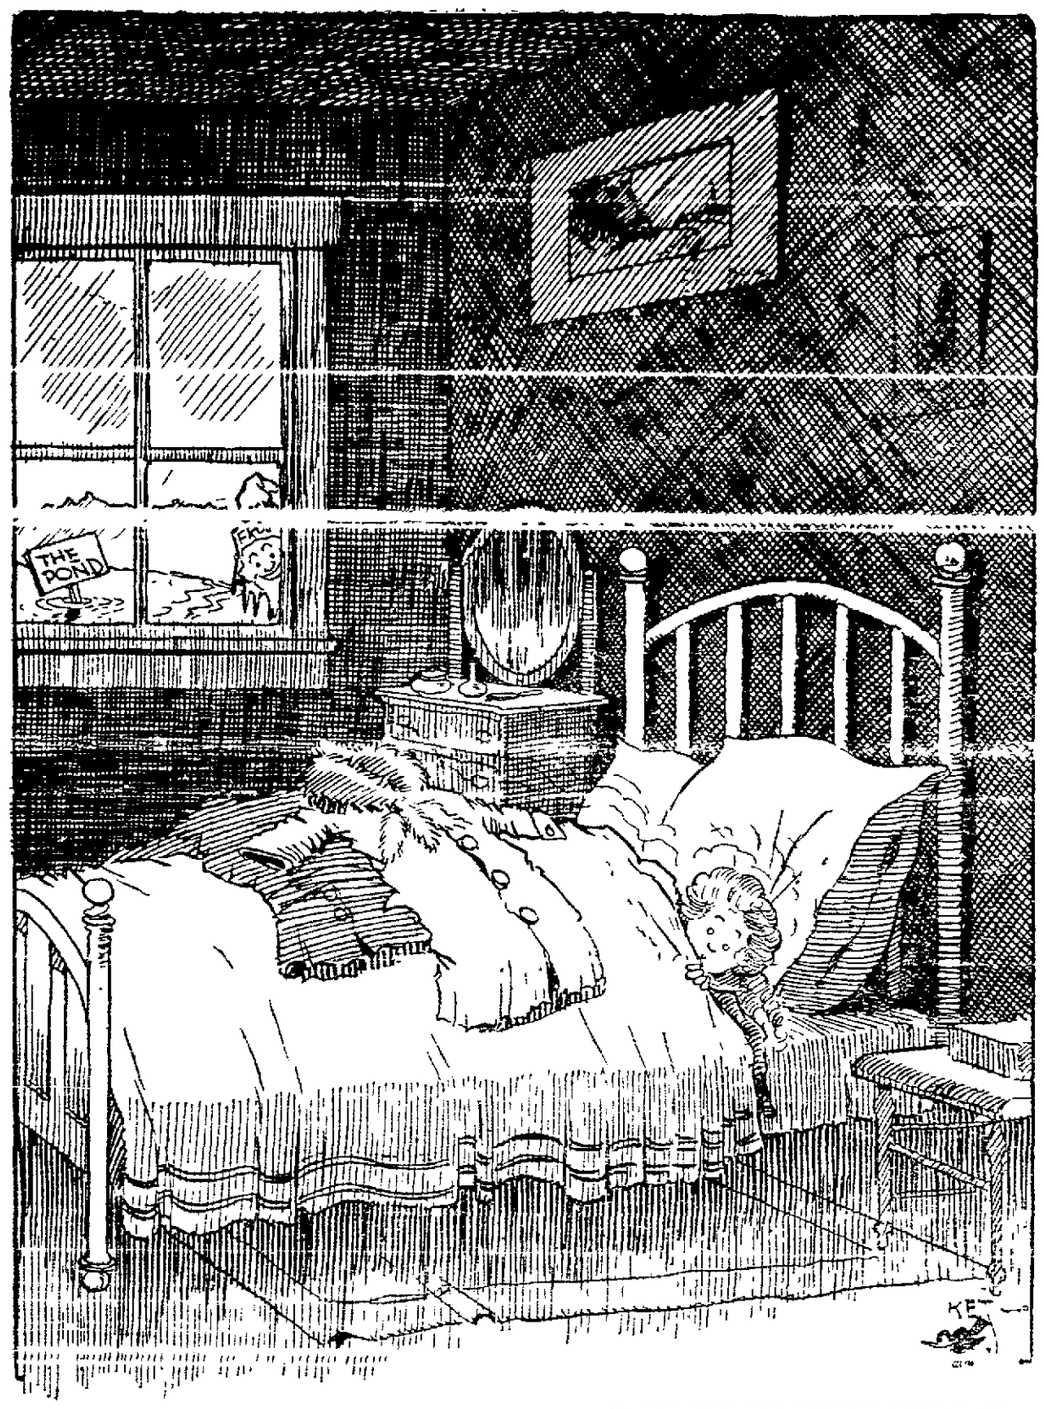

Many people dwell in hotels continuously, and there is neither sense nor justice in denying them the right to have game which they kill or furnish themselves cooked and served in the hotel where they reside. If the Fish and Game Commissioners really desire to do something that will benefit the community and preserve wild ducks, especially the canvasback, from extermination they should put a stop to the dumping of oil refuse in San Francisco bay and its fresh water affluents. Oil refuse kills the fish and destroys the feeding grounds of the ducks. Many ducks get caught in the masses of floating scum and perish miserably.

Raiding the kitchen of a fashionable hotel may be spectacular, but it is expressive of a species of vigilance more spiced with malice than common sense. It does not save the life of one duck or make ducks more numerous. But it does spoil the pleasure of a few people, which appears to have been the real purpose of the St. Francis raid.

DON'T SCOLD TELEPHONE GIRL

In the Easter Sunday news last spring one of the features was the heroism of the telephone girls at Omaha. "As long as there was a wire they stayed at their posts." Shortly afterward the same story of courage and loyalty was told in the Dayton flood, and again in a West Virginia valley. But there is a heroism at the telephone board in the plain setting of the day's hard work which is quite as admirable as the valor displayed under the more dramatic circumstances. Ordinarily, though, we do not hear about it, there is nothing of news value, for instance, in the fact that a telephone girl has had to quit because of poor health. Another takes her place and the service goes on. But when we read the physician's judgment in the death certificate that overwork and nervous prostration combined with consumption to kill this telephone girl and that she was 20 years old when she died, though there still be nothing of news about it, there is something of a text. And the sermon is easily preached—indeed, it preaches itself. It is a plea for consideration for the telephone girl. It is a nerve-wearing work she does. No word of commendation can be spoken when the work is well done, but the operator is exposed to continuous criticisms when her work is faulty. Occasionally, the worry and abuse and toil of it proves too much and the narrative ends in a death certificate. The public ought to be fairer, ought to be more courteous and more considerate. After all the public is "you and I and all of us."

WOMAN PLANS RIVAL TO BABEL

To Adopt Babies of Fifteen Racial Varieties, Her Idea.

Mrs. L. Bracket Bishop Sends Representatives to Orphan Asylums.

CHICAGO, Nov. 28.—Mrs. L. Bracket Bishop, wife of a wealthy business man, made known yesterday that she planned to become the mother, by adoption, of fifteen children, each to represent one of the fifteen most characteristic racial types. Her plans became known when her representatives visited local orphan asylums in search of the nucleus of her future family. Mrs. Bishop said later that friends now touring Europe had been asked to find babies representing such races as she could not recruit in Chicago.

The unique family, according to Mrs. Bishop, will include a negro, an Indian, an Arab, a Japanese, a Malay, a German, a Chinese a Spanish an Italian, an Irish child, and babies representing several of the South American countries.

Mrs. Bishop in explaining her plan said she hoped to obtain babies in which the racial characteristics promised to develop most thoroughly. The plan, she said, had been under consideration since the death of her two daughters twenty-five years ago. Bishop opposed it, however, until recently, when she said he had been won over.

"We will move from the hotel where we are now living to a comfortable, good-sized house in the outskirts as soon as the family is started," said Mrs. Bishop. "And we intend to bring the children up as nearly as possible like the average American family of moderate means.

"They will go to the public schools, and I hope to show that in spite of their different nationalities and racial traits they will grow up brothers and sisters, as I mean to be a mother to them all."

Mrs. Bishop said some of her friends had attempted to dissuade her from the idea, suggesting the family would become known as the "human zoo."

TEXAS WOMAN IS SAID TO HAVE KILLED LAWYER

FORT WORTH, Tex., Nov. 28.—Mrs. Agnes Stokes, divorced wife of John Stokes, was arrested here yesterday on a charge of murder. She was with her former husband several days ago when the second Mrs. Stokes, who had instituted divorce proceedings, appeared at the house with a lawyer, Donald Shilg, who was shot dead. Stokes was accused of the shooting, but after investigation the prosecutor concluded that Stokes could not have fired the shot and a charge was preferred against the former Mrs. Stokes.

WOMAN'S PARTY MUST FIRST HOLD PRIMARIES

CHICAGO, Nov. 28.—Women to whom [illegible] appointments as election judges or clerks for the coming year, must declare their allegiance to some political party in order to get the jobs, according to an announcement yesterday by William H. Stuart, chief clerk of the election board. Those who hoped to qualify as non-partisan appointees will be disappointed.

The Woman's party will not be recognized by the election authorities, as it never has nominated candidates at a primary.

Although the Woman's party may make recommendations for judges and clerks, those selected must qualify as Republicans, Democrats or Progressives.

SWIMS RIVER WITH HANDS AND FEET TIED

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 28.—With both her hands and feet tied, Miss Clair Farry, 15 years old, swam in the Willamette river from the Hawthorn to the Morrison bridge, a distance of 600 yards in seven minutes flat yesterday afternoon. The temperature of the air was 49 degrees and the water was 48 degree. The girl dived from a pontoon under the Hawthorn bridge and emerged from the river at a boathouse under the Morrison span. She showed no bad effects from the trying ordeal.

Miss Farry made a similar swim in the river last summer, and declared last night that her stunt of yesterday gave her no more discomfort than the previous one, as her exertions left her warm while in the water. Motorboats and other craft followed her over the course.

DECOLETTE CALF IS THE LATEST FAD

PARIS, Nov. 28.—The decollete calf has just been introduced by several ultra fashionable women. They have appeared at the theaters this week wearing gowns daringly slashed which reveal that the accustomed silk stocking are lacking. Even at this season, this might be accepted as a return to the fashion of Eve before the fall. But some of these ladies have had dainty arabesques painted on their nether limbs and one wore a string of diamonds caught below her knee.

WORKERS BEGIN LONG DISTANCE CAMPAIGN

SAN ANTONIO (Texas), Nov. 28.—Texas workers for woman suffrage have begun a long-distance campaign to make themselves heard at Washington, through nightly telegrams to the Texas delegation, urging "votes for women." A committee of the local suffragette organization began the campaign with the following telegram to Representative Henry, chairman of the Rules Committee of the House:

"The women of Texas wish you a happy Thanksgiving and we ask you to appoint a committee to help make a government for the people, of the people and by the people, for if women are not people, what are they?"

FATHER SEEKS LAD MOTHER NOW POSSESSES

CHICO, Nov. 28.—Clarence Sherman, whose wife has disappeared from his home in Castella, and who, Sherman declares, has eloped with Fred Quackenbush, a saloon man of that city and formerly of Chico, declared today that he would make every effort to locate his wife in order to regain possession of his little boy. When the boy is found, Sherman said, his wife will be allowed to go her way. He declared that he would not sue for divorce.

DAUGHTER OF KING FAILS TO PAY RENT

PARIS, Nov. 28.—Princess Louise of Belgium, daughter of the late King Leopold, has, by order of the Paris courts, been evicted from her residence in the Avenue Du Bois de Boulogne by her landlady, Mrs. Whitcomb, widow of a wealthy Californian, who left much valuable house property in Paris. The Princess failed to pay her rent.

REFEREE IS BEATEN.

[illegible], Nov. 28.—Lieutenant Ed Johnson, Third Cavalry, was badly beaten yesterday by a student of Baylor University after a football game between Baylor and Southwestern University, in which he acted as referee. Johnson had ruled three players off the field for slugging.

ASKS TROOPS FOR COPPER GUARDS

Reinforcements Requested of Governor Ferris to Quell Disorder.

CALUMET, Mich., Nov. 28.—Fear that the disorders of the copper miners' strike were getting beyond control of the civil authorities yesterday caused the supervisors of Keweenaw county to ask Governor Ferris to increase the number of troops on guard.

A blaze at the home of Captain John Stephens at Mohawk was put out before much damage was done. The rear porch had been saturated with kerosene.

James Cruz, sheriff of Houghton county, has stationed 50 deputies in Copper City, close to the storm center, to supplement the military forces.

The strikers went workerless yesterday but held their usual parades. Work continued at the mines.

DENVER, Colo., Nov. 28.—The acceptance by the operators and the rejection by the miners' representatives of a statement of facts submitted by Governor E. M. Ammons, upon which the governor hoped to secure the resumption of the conference upon the southern coal field strike, last night led to the practical withdrawal of the governor from conciliatory measures and an order by the executive to Adjutant General Chase to "enforce the law in the strike zone."

Immediately after the operators had accepted and the miners' representatives had rejected the governor's statement of facts, Secretary of Labor William B. Wilson issued a statement which, countersigned by Governor Ammons, was presented to the operators and the miners' representatives. Both promised to give it consideration.

NO RECOGNITION OF UNION.

The reason given by the strikers' representatives for the rejection of the governor's statement was that it put aside the question of recognition of the union.

Secretary Wilson's statement suggested, in lieu of the recognition of the union, a board of seven arbitrators, three to be appointed by each side and these six to select a seventh. If the six cannot agree the seventh is to be appointed by President Wilson.

BIG SYNDICATE WILL HANDLE STATE'S OIL

General Petroleum and Union Companies in Holding Concern.

English Capitalists to Organize With $75,000,000 Capital.

With seventy-five millions to put at once into oil fields of California, Captain John Barneson, who returned last night to San Francisco after his European [illegible] looking for the state's oil resources, today told oil experts of the bay region the details of his arrangements. The General Petroleum company and probably the Union Oil company are declared to be placed on a much sounder financial basis through the influx of English capital, and the syndicate, which has undertaken the work of development, and will underwrite a holding company of the two concerns, can, with the opening of the Panama canal, take the entire output of both properties.

The syndicate, which has signed a preliminary agreement, will be managed by A. M. Grenfell of Chaplin, Milne & Grenfell, and R. Tilden Smith. Among the members of the syndicate are Andrew Weir and others, whose names will not be announced until the permanent agreement is signed. The final formality is contingent merely upon the agreement of the General Petroleum underwriters that they will deliver half the outstanding General Petroleum bonds for exchange, and they assert that enough of the bonds are in the hands of the central group, so that they are in a position to meet this obligation.

BIG HOLDING COMPANY.

The syndicate intends to form a British holding company, whose securities will be listed in London, and actively traded in in Paris, whether listed or not. As it requires considerable time to organize such a company under the British laws, this matter has been left until the signing of the final agreement. The holding company will be authorized to issue £10,000,000 of 7 per cent cumulative preference stock, either in £1 or £5 shares and 5,000,000 shares of ordinary stock of the par value of £5,000,000. In other words, the total authorized capital will be approximately $75,000,000, of which $50,000,000 will be preference and $25,000,000 ordinary. The preference shares will have no voting power.

The syndicate obligated itself to furnish $3,000,000 in cash for the use of the General Petroleum company, of which $1,000,000 has already been supplied and $2,000,000 will be on call after January 1, 1914. The company's requirements for the present and immediate future are for $1,800,000, which will leave $1,200,000 for working capital and for development.

TO EXCHANGE BONDS.

The agreement provides that the 6 per cent bonds of the General Petroleum company shall be exchanged for the 7 per cent cumulative preference stock of the holding company, par for par. The original underwriters have signified their willingness to make the exchange, and it is believed that the small holders of bonds will make the exchange because it is to their interest to do so.

The General Pipe Line bonds, which are guaranteed by the General Petroleum company, will remain undisturbed. The General Petroleum company has outstanding approximately $12,500,000 6 per cent bonds. If half this issue is exchanged for preference shares of the holding company, £1,250,000 of this issue would be required. If all the bonds are exchanged, £2,500,000 would be required. There are also outstanding $3,000,000 convertible notes. On the same basis, they would require for exchange from £200,000 to £600,000 of the preference shares. Thus, a minimum of £1,550,000 and a maximum of £3,100,000 preference shares will be required to take care of the funded debt of the General Petroleum company. Counting on the maximum, £6,900,000 preference stock remains authorized and unissued, or nearly $35,000,000.

BIG SUM PAID.

The syndicate already has paid into the coffers of the General Petroleum $1,000,000 in cash, and has obligated itself to pay over $2,000,000 more in cash, as and when needed, on or after January 1, 1914.

The authority to issue approximately $35,000,000 of this stock was incorporated in the plan to provide for the purchase of control of Union Oil of California, if this transaction is finally deemed advisable. At present this plan forms no part of the written agreement, but it is understood that all parties to the underwriting are in favor of exercising the option. The General Petroleum company has already paid $500,000 on this option, and the total payments will be brought to $1,000,000 in a few months. This company obligates itself to keep this option alive until its expiration unless it is exercised before that time.

Meantime Andrew Weir and R. Tilden Smith will arrive in New York on December 10 on their way to inspect the properties of the Union Oil company. On their return to London, the British underwriters will reach a definite decision with respect to Union Oil. There still remain thirteen months in which to effect this transaction.

WAITER CHARGED BY WIFE WITH SLAVERY

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 28.—An argument on the street at 2 o'clock this morning resulted disastrously for August James, a waiter. James was with his wife Grace when a dispute arose. In the course of the quarrel the man is alleged to have struck his better half over the head. Policemen Coleman, Reily and Brannan interfered. Mrs. James, angered at the attack on [illegible] by her spouse, accused him of being a white slaver. He was taken to the city prison and booked on that charge as well as one of battery. Mrs. James is only 19 years old.

Avoid Sedative Cough Medicines

If you want to contribute directly to the occurrence of capillary bronchitis and pneumonia use cough medicines that contain odine, morphine, heroine and other sedatives when you have a cough or cold. An expectorant like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is what is needed. That cleans out the culture beds, or breeding places, for the germs of pneumonia and other germ diseases. That is why pneumonia never results from a cold when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is used. It has a world-wide reputation for its cures. It contains no morphine or other sedative. ## GAMBLER'S END PUZZLING TO POLICE

Mystery Surrounding Death of E. C. Howe Not Yet Solved by Officers.

Was Formerly Best Known and Most Prosperous "Sport" of Chicago.

CHICAGO, Nov. 28. — Attempts were made by the police today to solve the mystery surrounding the death of Edgar C. Howe, a gambler, whose body was found yesterday on a farm west of the city. Mrs. Howe, who had not been living with her husband, identified the body late last night. There was a bullet wound in the head and the skull fractured in three places. Mrs. Howe said she had not seen her husband since last Sunday, but that there had been no quarrel.

Whether murder or suicide, the death of Howe brought into public view the lights and shadows of a "sport's" career. Howe was one of the best-known and most prosperous gamblers in the city.

With the closing of the race tracks here more than a decade ago, Howe's fortunes changed. He had lost his money and his friends knew it, but with the old pride of a once successful gambler, he would never admit it.

William McCann, caretaker of the old Hawthorne racetrack, testified at the inquest that a revolver found near the body was his property, but said Howe had access to it. The coroner then ordered a continuance of the proceedings.

Continue Search for Missing N. Y. Official

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Friends of Park Commissioner Charles B. Stover, who disappeared on October 15, are beginning almost to despair of finding him alive and well. Nevertheless, the widespread search for him will be pressed vigorously. The moving pictures taken of him some time before his disappearance, and the exhibition of which it is hoped will aid in finding him, are being shown in moving picture theaters throughout the country. It is estimated that the pictures were seen by 15,000,000 persons yesterday in more than 10,000 moving picture houses.

FATALITIES ON RAILROADS INCREASE

During Three Months of Year 2535 Persons Were Killed.

Number of Accidents and Injuries Also Grows, Says Report.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—The Interstate Commerce Commission's accident bulletin, issued today, for the quarter ending June 30, 1913, shows that, as compared with returns of the corresponding quarter of 1912, there was a total increase of 140 in the number of persons killed and of 3283 in the number injured in railroad accidents of all kinds in the United States. There was an increase of 124 in the number of train accidents.

Defective roadway and defective equipment caused most of the derailments reported, 15.1 per cent being caused by broken rails.

2535 KILLED.

The total number of casualties in all classes of accidents incident to railroading during the quarter was 2535 killed and 49,011 injured. Of these totals, 2286 were killed and 15,863 injured in other than train accidents, including accidents to employes while at work, to passengers getting on and off cars and to trespassers.

The total number of collisions and derailments reported for the quarter was 3596, of which 148 collisions and 202 derailments affected passenger trains. The financial damage caused by the accident was $3,234,289, a material increase over the returns for the corresponding quarter of 1912.

Wheels Cease to Turn During Finley Funeral

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—Funeral services for William Wilson Finley, late president of the Southern Railway system, were held here this morning, in St. Joseph's Episcopal church, attended by many government officials and his former associates in the commercial and transportation world. As the body was carried to the church, just before 11 o'clock, all activities over the Southern Railway's 7000 miles of road ceased for five minutes. Employes everywhere laid down their work; trans everywhere were stopped, and machinery in the railroad shops ceased to turn. The body was borne by six negro porters, veterans in the employ of the company. The honorary pallbearers included George F. Baker, James J. Hill, E. H. Gary and Francis L. Stetson.

She asserts she is the first white woman to view the Grand Falls in Labrador.

Miss Coates says she made the trip last summer from Hamilton Inlet, where she was stationed, the northernmost relief station, in company with a halfbreed Indian guide. They traveled by canoe most of the 325 miles to Grand Falls, losing one canoe on the trip.

MRS. J. W. ORR ON 'FEDERATION WORK'

Subjects of Moment to State Discussed by Bright Speakers.

One hundred prominent clubwomen of Oakland and San Francisco assembled today in the clubrooms of the Oakland New Century Club, Fifth and Peralta streets, for the harvest luncheon, the largest affair given by the members of the New Century Club this season. Mrs. Robert Watt, president of the club, and the board of directors, were on the receiving party. The long tables were adorned with yellow corn husks and bunches of wheat arranged artistically in the centerpiece.

Many prominent speakers addressed the women present, officials of the State Federation of Women's Clubs; Mrs. J. W. Orr, state president C. F. W. C., addressed the clubwomen on the "Federation at Its Work," pointing out the work that was accomplished by the various women's clubs throughout California. Mrs. Olive Borrette, past president of the Madrone Club, gave a talk on "Country Life."

GUESTS OF HONOR.

Members of the Madrone Club were the especial guests of honor. Mrs. G. W. Elicker is president of the club and gave a greeting from the members of her vicinity to the Oakland clubwomen. Sixteen other members of the Madrone Club were present. Responses were given by all of the club officers present, two minute toasts being given by Mrs. Hargrave of San Joaquin valley; Mrs. Borrette, "A Country Life;" Mrs. J. W. A musical program was given by Mrs. P. D. Aiken (Mabel Caswell), who rendered a number of beautiful vocal selections.

The affair was one of the most successful of the season and the details were under the direction of Mrs. B. W. Sloan, who, with her assistants, great credit is due for their efforts in making the luncheon a success.

PANAMA CANAL REPORT HAS PROBLEMS

Treacherous Slides of Culebra Cut Precludes Definite Opening Date.

Col. Goethals Makes No Prediction of When Ships Will First Pass.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—No definite date for the official opening of the Panama canal is set in the annual report of Colonel George Goethals, chairman and chief engineer of the canal commission, which has just been submitted to Secretary Garrison. Neither is there any prediction of when the ships may first pass from ocean to ocean. The first day of the canal's actual operation still depends upon the treacherous slides of Culebra cut and how fast the dredges can keep the channels open.

"It has been the general belief that the effect of the water in the cut would tend to retard slides, and experience below the Gatun locks fully justifies this belief," said Colonel Goethals. "On the other hand, the geologist is of the opinion that the water may to some extent develop new slides. Again, much ado was made in 1909 over the seamy character of rock on the isthmus, through which water flows quite rapidly, in consequence of which the question was raised that the lake might leak out through seams and crevices.

BETTER DETERMINED NOW.

"If these things are liable to occur, the sooner the better, if the official opening of the canal is to occur January 1, 1915; for if water were not admitted this fall, but were deferred until May 1, 1914, the full height could not be reached until October, 1914, leaving little time for the determination of these questions. These considerations led to the conclusion that the water should be turned into the cut at the earliest date practicable for getting the dredges to work on the slides.

"The present plans, therefore, are based upon the blowing up of Gamboa dike on October 10, its removal by dredges immediately thereafter; the transfer of two suction dredges and a ladder dredge to the Cucaracha slide, the smaller dipper dredges to work on the other slides until the full width of the channel is attained, and the passage of vessels through the canal as soon as channels of full depth and of sufficient width have been secured.

DREDGE WORK NECESSARY.

"Before boats can be passed it will be necessary to remove the Gamboa dike by dredges and to remove the slides as already outlined. The passage of commercial vessels is dependent, therefore, upon the time when proper channels can be dredged through the slides; should additional ones occur, they will necessarily advance the date when this will be accomplished."

The canal proper, exclusive of the approaches, the machine shops and warehouses and great ocean docks at either end, would have been complete during the last fiscal year but for the extensive slides in the Culebra cut. And to deal with the great problems involved in the removal of the slides, no effective way was found except the bodily displacement of vast hills. The slides and breaks increased as the cut was deepened.

"No treatment has proven effective for slides when once developed except that of excavating and hauling away material from the moving mass until the slide comes to rest, or until the angle of repose for the particular ma-

Fight Against Giving Useless Xmas Presents

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—The fight against the useless giving of Christmas presents—not to give less but to give discriminately and intelligently—is spreading throughout the country with the approach of the holidays. The Spugs, as the Society for the Prevention of Useless Giving has nicknamed its members, are supplying copies of membership cards and by-laws with which to inaugurate branch societies in various parts of the coutry.

Every Spug must wear a membership pin and pledge himself to aid in the fight against the useless Christmas present. The cost of the pin is covered in the membership dues, which are 10 cents a year. Five hundred persons enrolled in Washington in one day, according to reports received by Spugs' headquarters here.

Boycott on Eggs Is Started by Women

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 28.—Kansas City women, aroused over the high prices being asked for eggs and poultry, will join the boycott on eggs started recently by women in eastern cities, according to the officers of four of the largest women's organizations here. ## Newspaper Style Declared Model for Writer

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 28.—"The newspaper style, which is becoming more and more essential in the equipment of every successful writer, is the clearest, most concise and most interesting style in which things can be written," declared Professor F. W. Beackman of the department of journalism of Iowa State College today in addressing the second meeting of the American Conference of Teachers of Journalism.

"This news sense, the ability to see what is new and its new meaning to the gerat mass of humanity, is necessary to men in every field of endeavor, but especially to the men who write.

"It is the news sense which enables the writer to see through a mass of [illegible] the news sense that gives the writer understanding of and sympathy with common activities of men so that he can find what will interest them even in unexpected and unfavorable places.

STYLE MOST EFFICIENT.

"With all its faults, I still believe in the news style as the most efficient style of this modern day for obtaining information through the written word. It has been hammered out in the [illegible] to meet the demands of millions for something to draw attention, interest them and give them information in the quickest, clearest way possible."

The kind of men needed in agricultural journalism was described by Charles Dillon, former head of the department of industrial journalism at Kansas Agricultural College now of Topeka, Kas.

Professor James Melvin Lee, of New York University, discussed instructions in advertising, circulation and other phases of the newspaper in connection with college courses in journalism.

Prevention of Cruelty to Our Language Suggested

CHICAGO, Nov. 28.—Joseph Jastrow, of the University of Wisconsin, speaking here today before the National Council of Teachers of English, referred to the possibility of a society for the prevention of cruelty to the English language.

Professor Jastrow told the result of an inquiry as to what would be the outcome if fifty objectionable expressions caught in ordinary conversation were fined such amounts, varying from one cent to one dollar, as seemed a fit punishment for each separate offense. The judges, 95 in number, included 12 women.

What prompted Professor Jastrow's unique inquiry was a study of linguistic sensibility as a field for the variety of factors of judging process.

F. N. Scott, of the University of Michigan, whose topic was "The Un[illegible]

WORK NULLIFIED.

"Of what use is it to drill pupils in grammar, to sweat over compositions, to spend month after month in the reading and study of English masterpieces, if steadily, day by day, some powerful disintegrating agency nullifies all that we have accomplished?"

Not even the Bible, Professor Scott said, could now compete with the daily newspaper as the most powerful [illegible] day and nation. According to it, Professor Scott urged that the language as well as the spirit of the newspaper should be the equal of that required of any other daily visitor to the family circle. He said that slang, colloquialisms, indiscriminate use of words, violations of grammar and style, the split infinitive, the dangling participle, could all be corrected. He pleaded for more action against violations of the great principles of good writing and of appreciation—the principles of amenity, truth, sincerity and self-restraint.

SAVE YOUR HAIR! IF FALLING OUT OR DANDRUFF—25 CENT DANDERINE

Ladies! Men! Here's the Quickest, Surest Dandruff Cure Known.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf.

There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die. Then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and after the first application your hair will take on that life, lustre and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance; an incomparable gloss and softness, but what will please you most will be after just a few weeks' use, when you will actually see a lot of fine, downy hair—new hair—growing all over the scalp.

IF BACKACHY OR KIDNEYS BOTHER

Eat less meat and take a glass of Salts to flush out Kidneys—Drink plenty water.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush off the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

FIND TESTS FOR TYPHOID SAFETY

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Nov. 28.—Practical tests to determine when a person needs to be revaccinated against typhoid fever are being perfected at the pathological laboratory of Professor F. P. Gay and Professor John N. Force. The results of their experiments to date are contained in a paper just issued, entitled "A Preliminary Note on a Skin Reaction Indicating Protecuon against Typhoid Fever."

It is hoped that this new test, after being perfected and thoroughly tried out on large numbers of cases, will prove of much practical value. The armies and navies of all the great powers now vaccinate all their men against typhoid and revaccinate at intervals. It is hoped this new test will tell when revaccination is needed, something heretofore uncertain.

Already a thousand students of the University of California have been vaccinated against typhoid. This privilege is extended by the Stuent Infirmary to any student who desires it. Moreover, the department of pathology of the University is sending anti-typhoid vaccine, made by Professor Gay's and Dr. Edith J. Claypole's improved new method, free to any physician in California who wants to render his patients proof against this common, costly, painful and dangerous disease.

The immense value to the world of anti-typhoid vaccination is shown on the fact that whereas the United States Army formerly had 150 or more cases of typhoid every year, in 1912, when vaccination to prevent typhoid had been given to every soldier, there was not so much as a single case of the disease. Anti-typhoid vaccination is of no avail in the treatment of typhoid. Its use is to save people from ever contracting the dreaded disease.

COURTSHIP OF WHIRLWIND SORT

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 28.—Telling of the whirlwind courtship of her husband, Cecil Nicholson, Mrs. Sarah A. Quinn Nicholson, better known as Queenie Mack, began suit to annul her marriage to Nicholson on the grounds that she entered it through fraud practiced upon her and because she was laboring under the effect of drugs.

County Recorder Logan was the first witness called before Judge Monroe. He introduced the marriage license showing the date of marriage as November 6, 1912. Dr. D. W. Pellar followed him on the stand and testified that on November 5 he was called to the Hotel Lankershim where Mrs. Nicholson was staying.

"I found her laboring under nervous excitement bordering on hysteria," he testified. "I administered a hypodermic in the morning and called again in the afternoon and gave her bromides to quiet her. At no time were enough drugs administered to destroy her reason."

Other testimony was introduced to show that Mrs. Nicholson had never known marital relations.

TELLS OF MEETING.

Then Mrs. Nicholson was called. As she stood before the stand in a gray silk dress with lace on its sleeves she gave her name as Sarah Quinn.

"I first met Nicholson through the clerk at the Victoria hotel," she testified. "He had told the clerk that he wished to meet me and asked if I would consent to an introduction. We were introduced. The clerk told me that perhaps we would discover we had mutual acquaintances in Ireland.

"The next morning at 5 a. m. he rang up my room. He said that he had never had a girl make so great an impression on him and he wanted just to hear my voice. He had been unable to get me out of his mind, he said.

"The third day I was playing the piano in the parlor and he came in and sat beside me. He aroused my suspicion by asking about a man named Edwards, to whom I was once engaged and who lived in Salem, Ore. Then he proposed to me. I laughed at him. We had only known each other three days."

She admitted that she had been proposed to before.

Special Officer F. W. Lloyd was arrested in 1912 on the charge of levying "hush money" from Nicholson. The charge was later disproved. As the result of the arrest of Lloyd, George Baker Anderson, mayor's secretary, and Deputy City Prosecutor Fred Choate were dismissed.

FREE POUCH WITH PIPER

Men who chew tobacco dislike to have to carry the plug loose in their pockets. The tobacco is bound to pick up odd bits of cloth and dirt. This is what makes the pouch so popular with plug users. Tobacco Company of California, Inc., realizing this demand, has decided for a few days to give away free with every ten-cent purchase of Piper-Heidsieck a leather pouch made of handsome tan leather. The flap fastens tight with a patent snap clasp that keeps the pouch closed when you want it closed, yet opens instantly at your touch.

"This offer," says the Tobacco Company of California, Inc., "is made to get more men acquainted with the wonderful qualities of Piper Heidsieck. No matter what tobacco you chew with the champagne flavor. That rich, wine-like flavor never fails to make a friend."

MAN TRIES OUT THIS GUARANTEE; GETS HIS MONEY BACK, BUT--

He Bought a Bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone, Then Took It Back and Asked for His Money and Got It.

A man recently tried out the guarantee which every druggist gives with every bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone. He bought a bottle and then went back to the drug store and said the medicine hadn't helped him.

The druggist just reached into his cash register and took out a half dollar, the price of Dodson's Liver Tone, and handed it back to the gentleman.

But the man didn't take the money. He owned up that he was just trying the guarantee and as a matter of fact he had found Dodson's Liver Tone the best remedy for constipation and biliousness he had ever tried. "Why," he said, "my wife wouldn't be without a bottle in the house for anything. It's the best thing in the world for the whole family, and the only medicine that I would take or give to my children for a lazy liver."

Every druggist in town sells Dodson's Liver Tone and guarantees it to start the liver without violence. It is taking the place of calomel everywhere.

U. JUNIORS GIVE CLEVER FARCE

Annual Dramatic Production Takes Place Before Well Filled Playhouse.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Nov. 28. — Junior class students gave their annual dramatic production this afternoon at Ye Liberty playhouse in Oakland, presenting two original farces, "Pledging Pep" and "Jeanette's Way." Practically every seat in the theater had been sold out for the production. Both plays were cleverly presented under the direction of Garnett Holme. In the curtain raiser Miss Louise Roberts had the title role of Polly Van West, nicknamed "Pep," while other important parts were well sustained by Miss Helen Walters, G. A. Moller and R. H. # WOULD PARK THE BERKELEY HILLS

Plan Includes Grizzly Peak and Surrounding Territory in Recreation Area.

BERKELEY, Nov. 28. — A coterie of Berkeley and Contra Costa county residents have planned starting a movement to have the range of hills which includes Grizzly Peak made into a national park for the benefit of the bay cities. Harold J. French and George E. Edwards of Berkeley are among the leaders of the movement.

Back of it is also the Contra Costa Conservation club. A scenic road to the top of Grizzly and some sort of observation station there are among the plans being considered. A large part of the property proposed to be acquired is now privately owned, but the steepness of the hillsides making cultivation impracticable, it is believed it could be cheaply secured by government condemnation.

Much of the property, both on the Berkeley and Contra Costa sides of the crest is planted to eucalyptus by the People's Water company in process of construction of a new watershed to conserve the rainfall for water supply purposes.

The section which is proposed to be used in the parking scheme lies between the Berkeley and San Pablo ranges of hills. It is in large measure wild country now, and is believed to adapt itself to this object well. A party of enthusiasts, led by French and Edwards, spent yesterday surveying the territory, and planned then to lay their scheme before the department of interior as soon as practical means could be found therefor.

PANAMA CANAL HAS PROBLEMS

Treacherous Slides of Culebra Cut Precludes Definite Opening Date.

terial in motion is reached," said Colonel Goethals.

PAST GEOLOGICAL PREDICTIONS.

Last year it was predicted by geologists that the slides had been conquered and that little more activity could be expected, because all the loose surface soil and stone had almost slid off, exposing great ridges of solid basalt rock which would act as barriers to further earth movements. Yet, when all was most promising and the canal excavation had gotten within 60 feet of the bottom of the cut on the east side, the rocks broke under the tremendous pressure and 2,000,000 cubic yards of material slid into and closed up the cut. Since then the canal workers have been digging away that material, and though there have been several slides, steady progress was made, for not only did giant dredges work on the face of the slides, but powerful hydraulic monitors, such as were extensively used in hydraulic mining on the Pacific coast, were brought into play to wash away the treacherous hills from the rear, carrying the material into unused valleys distant from the canal.

A great engineering problem was involved in the solution of the question of continuing the excavation of the canal by steam shovels or by hydraulic dredges, and Colonel Goethals for the first time makes an official statement of the reasons which impelled him to choose the wet method.

BASED ON APPREHENSIONS.

In brief, these were based on the apprehension that Gamboa dike would not be strong or high enough to keep the water out of the cut as the Gatun lake rose in the wet season. Also, steam shovel operations would be retarded by the seasonal rains, which would not affect the operation of the dredges, and, finally, the measure was one of economy. It would have been possible with the shovels to have removed all of the slides by January 1, 1914, next, except the Cucaracha slide, which could not have been entirely carried off before April, 1914.

The financial operations of the canal are told in big figures. The disbursing officer has paid out $20,524,705 on payrolls alone. Congress so far has apropriated $349,505,223 for canal construction, of which $10,676,950 went for fortifications.

TELLS DETAILED STORY.

In great detail, Colonel Goethals tells the story of the engineers' work during the last year, and with particular satisfaction it is reported that the mechanism of the vast locks and dams was tested with perfect success. The gates at Gatun were swung in one minute and 51 seconds for each leaf. The heavy iron chains which are depended upon to prevent an unruly vessel from crashing into the locks were raised and lowered in ample time to meet any emergency and demonstrated their ability to check or stop any vessel unless of very great size and moving at excessive speed. The locomotives which will tow the ships through the locks were tried out and proved their ability to easily handle the largest vessels, and the electric installation, which will involve the use of a current of 44,000 volts pressure, was completely successful.

Altogether the technical sections of the report seem to demonstrate the accuracy of Colonel Goethals' statement that practically nothing but the great slide at Cucaracha remains to prevent the successful operation of the canal.

SKULL FRACTURED, BUT CORDY WILL RECOVER

BERKELEY, Nov. 28. — Such wonderful recuperative power has been displayed by Walter Cordy, who was hurt in an automobile accident last Monday, that it is now believed at Roosevelt hospital he will recover. Cordy drove his machine in front of a Southern Pacific train and was struck thereby. He suffered a compound basal fracture of the skull and a slighter fracture of the frontal bone.

Cordy lingered unconscious at Roosevelt for two days following a trephining operation performed by Dr. Robert Herbst. Today for the first time, and today he was permitted to converse briefly with Mrs. Cordy. He is a salesman for the Sanborn-Vail company and a director and prominent member of Berkeley Lodge of Elks No. 1015.

CHRISTENING AND WEDDING HELD

Double Ceremony Occurs When Popular Alameda Girl Becomes Bride.

ALAMEDA, Nov. 28.—A feature of the wedding of Miss Edith Birkholm and Thomas W. Beewley, which took place last night at the family home of the bride, was the christening of the month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Larsen (Nellie Birkholm). The little one was christened Martha Louise and had as her sponsors Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Bust (Laura Birkholm) and Nelson Birkholm, an uncle. The christening followed the wedding ceremony, both being performed by Rev. C. L. Mears of the First Congregational Church.

The wedding took place at 5:30 o'clock and after the christening the family and friends who were present sat down to an elaborate repast, the decorations for which were Scotch heather and hollyberries. The same holiday colors were in evidence in the decorations of the home. The bride, who is the third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Birkholm, was attended by her sister, Mrs. Cecil Bust, who was Miss Laura Birkholm before her marriage last July. Frederick B. Beewley acted as best man for his brother.

BRIDE IS ATTRACTIVE.

The bride was simply but most becomingly gowned in white crepe de chine and carried a shower of white rosebuds. The matron of honor wore her wedding gown of white embroidered crepe de chine and lace and carried Cecil Breuner roses.

Many handsome gifts were received, among them several beautiful pieces of silver, the gift of Mayor Ralph of San Francisco, the bridegroom being business secretary in the shipping firm in which the Mayor is a partner. Telegrams of congratulations and other recognition of the happy event from friends outside of the family circle and the limited number of guests, added to the felicity of the young couple, who left after the wedding supper for their two weeks' honeymoon. The home, which is now being built on Fair Oaks avenue, will be completed shortly.

RARE HOGARTH FOLIO GIVEN TO UNIVERSITY

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Nov. 28. — Connoisseurs of early book making are especially pleased with the rare and valuable early folio of the works of William Hogarth, which Mrs. Phoebe Hearst has presented to the university. The volume was published in London about 1822 from the original plates, as restored by James Heath of the Royal Academy.

By his will, dated August 16, 1764, Hogarth left all of his property, which consisted mainly of his engraved plates, to his wife. On her death they passed to her cousin, Mary Lewis, who transferred them, for a life annuity, to Alderman Boydell, from whom they passed to Baldwin, Craddock and Joy, in 1822. James Heath, who then retouched the plates, was one of the engravers on the Boydell Shakespeare.

TO TALK OF JUDAISM.

BERKELEY, Nov. 28. — The First Hebrew Congregation of Berkeley will hold services this evening at Odd Fellows hall. The speaker for the occasion will be Rabbi M. M. Friedlander of the Oakland congregation, whose subject will be "The Importance of Judaism and Its Principles." The service is open to all Jews of this city.

AFTER GRIPPE

Made Strong by Vinol.

John C. Furman, of Clarion, Pa., says: "After a very severe attack of the grippe my system was in a weakened, nervous and run-down condition. I had no appetite at all. I was obliged to continue with my work, and nothing seemed to help me until a friend induced me to take Vinol. I began to note good results from the first bottle. I continued its use and am now sound and well as ever.

In health one cannot realize how depressed a person may become after trying one remedy after another without benefit for such a condition as Mr. Furman was in, or what a relief it is to find help and be restored to health and strength.

It is the combined action of the medicial curative element of cods' livers without the greasy oil, aided by the blood-making and strength-creating properties of tonic iron, that makes Vinol so efficient in building up the whole system.

We guarantee Vinol to give you perfect satisfaction. The Owl Drug Co., Oakland, Calif.

STEEL COLUMNS TO RISE 300 FEET

Sather Campanile to Be Completed by 1915: Will Be Great Monument.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Nov. 28. — Already 1055 students have enrolled for the correspondence courses started eight weeks ago by the college of agriculture of the University of California. Six such courses are now being given by the division of agricultural education — alfalfa, poultry husbandry, walnut culture, citrus fruits, grape growing and onion raising. Other courses are being prepared. All these agricultural courses are free to anyone who will write to the college of agriculture.

The correspondence students express eagerness to go on with other courses. The instruction is exceedingly practical, for the courses are planned to meet the actual needs of farmers, or others expecting to live on the farm, who desire specific and detailed information regarding the raising of particular crops or animals.

LOFTY BELL TOWER.

With an acrobatic mechanic clinging to its top, the first nine-ton steel column for the new $200,000 Sather Campanile has been swung into place, and the University of California's great bell tower has started its 300 foot climb toward the sky. It will be completed by 1915. Slender and lofty, its gleaming walls all of white granite and marble, the Sather campanile will be a splendid landmark, visible from ocean vessels as they enter the Golden Gate and from all the cities clustering around San Francisco bay. It is a memorial to its donor, Mrs. Jane K. Sather of Oakland, giver of many rich endowments to the University of California.

In the [illegible] will hang the Sather bells, for which Mrs. Sather gave a special gift of $25,000. From these chimes the university hymns, patriotic airs, or any other melodies desired may be rung out. Of noble grace, dignity and beauty, precious in material, in mass and height comparable with such structures as the campanile of Venice, Giotto's tower in Florence, and the Giralda of Seville, and itself keynote for the surrounding landscape and architectural glories of the Berkeley campus, as developing under the great Hearst plan, the Sather campanile is destined to become one of the world's most famous towers.

INDUSTRIES ESSAY PRIZE.

"Why should home industries be encouraged and fostered by Californians?"

The student of the University of California who writes the best essay on this subject is to receive a $25 prize given by the Home Industries league of California. This organization of 750 manufacturers and producers and 10,000 associate members, pledged to give preference, price and quality being equal, to things made in California, wants the students to discuss the economic principles involved and so help create public opinion.

BOOKS AND MUSIC.

Among recent gifts to the University of California have been the endowment for a loan fund to aid women students, given by the San Joaquin district of the California Federation of Women's clubs; $100 from the Knights of St. Patrick, whose annual gifts of like amount are building up a valuable and interesting collection of Irish books in the university library; a working size laboratory model of the McCully Gyratory ore crusher, given to the college of mining by the Power and Mining Machinery company of Cudahy, Wisconsin; and $190 given by George L. Foote for purchases for the department of music.

By this gift Professor Charles L. Seeger is adding to the library the complete works of the great Italian composer Palestrina. With the revival in the Catholic churches of Gregorian music, the compositions of this 16th century master are profoundly affecting present day composers.

AMONG CLIFF DWELLERS.

The daily life of the ancient cliff dwellers is made plain in the new permanent "southwestern Indian hall" just added to the museum of anthropology of the University of California, on Parnassus avenue, San Francisco. Two other phases of aboriginal life are abundantly illustrated in the same new hall — the town-dwelling arts, crafts, rites and industries of the Pueblo Indians, and the life of war and the chase led by the nomadic tribes of the southwest, such as the wild Apaches, Navajos, Pimas, Papagos and Wolapais.

The museum is open free to the public daily except Monday, with free lectures every Sunday at 3. It has four other large permanent exhibition halls—Egyptian, Greek, Peruvian and Californian—besides smaller unit collections. The treasures of this museum of anthropology could not be equaled for less than three to five million dollars.

They are the gift to the university of Mrs. Phoebe A. Hearst. The department of anthropology is extending its usefulness by field investigations of Indian languages and customs, by correspondence courses in anthropology, and by sending out to any school that desires traveling loan collections illustrating life

ALAMEDANS WARNED AGAINST CHECK PASSER

ALAMEDA, Nov. 28—Residents of Alameda are warned by Chief of Police John Conrad to be aware of a man giving the name of T. M. Gage, who is said to be a passer of bogus checks. He is described as weighing 185 pounds, being 5 feet 10 inches in height, about 30 years of age, with medium complexion and brown hair.

Yesterday the stranger endeavored to pass a check on the firm of Wheeler & Son at 911 Central avenue. He ordered coal to be sent to a fictitious address. Wheeler has been "stung" before and he refused to take the order.

He told Policeman Toaspern of the incident and headquarters was informed by the policeman.

THOSE WHO BET THAT CLABBY WOULD STICK 15 ROUNDS BLAME GRIFFIN FOR LOSING HIS HEAD IN THE 14TH AND STOPPING CONTEST AFTER WAVING THE BOXERS TOGETHER

CLABBY DEMONSTRATES HE'S SUPERIOR OF SOLDIER FRANK

Result of Thanksgiving Day Battle Means Clabby-Dillon Match.

By THE TIMEKEEPER.

At least three Thanksgiving Day contests ran true to form and the public choices were returned the victors. Jimmy Clabby stopped Frank Logan in the fourteenth round at Daly City; Joe Rivers took a twenty-round decision over Leach Cross at Sailor Petroskey at Butte in twelve rounds. The victory won by Joe Rivers is comparatively unimportant since it will hardly entitle the Mexican to another chance with Lightweight Champion Willie Ritchie, who showed himself the superior of Joe less than a year ago. The other two battles, however, bring into prospect a Dillon-Clabby match for the middleweight championship.

You have to slip it to Jimmy Clabby for being a sure-enough wild cat. The Hammond terror gave "Soldier" Logan an artistic trimming at Daly City yesterday, and further endeared himself to the fistic fans of this region by displaying dazzling speed and cleverness, a stout heart, and, best of all, a sure-enough punch. The bout had one of the most peculiar endings ever seen in a local ring, and had it not been for the fact that Logan was clearly beaten anyway, Referee Jim Griffith might today come in for a great deal of criticism. Throughout the contest Clabby shewed a tendency to use a dangerous left swing to his opponent's body, and as many as seven times the blow landed apparently below the belt. It nearly always happened that the referee was on the wrong side of the fighters at the time, and did not see the foul, but a roar of protest from spectators and from Logan's corner caused Griffin to warn Clabby several times. Only once or twice did Logan give any symptoms of distress from these low punches, and they probably were not in any way responsible for his defeat. Still, in the light of what followed, many of Logan's supporters were inclined to sympathize strongly with the soldier.

Logan came up for the fourteenth round against the advice of his chief second, Spider Kelly. He was groggy from the effects of Clabby's persistent punishing, but was gamely bent on sticking as long as he could stand. Clabby went after his man furiously, trying for a knockout. Coming out of clinch near the ropes, Logan suddenly dropped his hands to his groin with a look of pain and glanced appealingly at the referee as though claiming another low punch. Griffin saw no foul and immediately raised Clabby's hand, figuring that the soldier was ready to quit. As soon as Logan saw Clabby's hand raised, he started forward to fight again, and Griffin made the mistake of signaling a resumption of the contest by waving the boxers together again. A moment later he reconsidered his action and again stepped between them and raised Clabby' hand. Probably Logan would not have lasted the round out anyway, but those who had wagered on him to stick 15 rounds were inclined to blame the ritian-hated arbiter.

From the minute that the first gong started, Clabby was off in front, bewildering his opponent with an assortment of hooks, jabs and uppercuts, and uncovering a loop-the-loop punch in the clinches, which Logan seemed powerless to avoid.

Logan plodded along grimly, striving to work a right cross to the jaw, his best and only punch. Before a minute of fighting had elapsed, Clabby had the soldier bleeding from the mouth and the crowd was amazed at his wonderful speed and cleverness. Logan showed to advantage in the sixth and seventh rounds, when he forced the fighting and by sheer strength compelled the Indiana boxer to give ground. Logan battered through Clabby's defense and landed several mighty blows to the Clabby jaw, causing his supporters to take heart and think that, after all, he might outlast the shifty marvel. In the seventh round a hard smash on the mouth loosened a plate of false teeth of Clabby's, and the Indiana man dropped them into his mit and tossed them to his corner. Apparently he didn't like the idea of discarding his molars, for he tore into Logan furiously after that, and never let up until he had the soldier on queer street.

The approach of the end came in the thirteenth round, when Clabby shot a lightning right to Logan's jaw, sending him to the mat. Logan was up at the count of two, and fighting back wildly, but at the end of the round Spider Kelly had to rush in and almost carry his protege to the corner.

The "Spider," seeing that Logan was beaten, was in favor of tossing up the sponge, but Logan insisted on coming up for the fourteenth round. They had been scrapping for only a minute, when Logan dropped his arms, apparently from sheer exhaustion, rather than from a low punch.

"BUCK" SLATED TO BE SLIPPED THE HOOK

Old Dame Rumor is a busy old bird, a fact which has been exemplified much of late. Now it comes out with the declaration that Manager Arthur Devlin of the Oaks has, or intends to, slip the "can" to Buck O'Brien, songster pitcher. Walter McCredie said that such were the remarks which were going the rounds in Columbus.

BREEZY BITS
by Billy Fitz

The victory of Joe Rivers in the south yesterday caused all the enchiladas to bubble over at both ends.

Dr. Louis Wallach, dentist, will now have a word to say to the teeth of Leach Cross, fighter.

Had it been Leach Cross instead of Logan who knocked out Jimmy Clabby's plate of false teeth the fight would have stopped long enough for the dentist to present his card.

Seventeen flossy wrens—all new voters—attended the Clabby-Logan battle yesterday afternoon and never shut their eyes once. The female of the species will soon have it on the male.

TWENTY YEARS HENCE.

"O, where are you going, my pretty maid?"
"I'm off for the ringside, sir," she said.
"And may I go with you?" I meekly sighed.
"No, you cook my supper," the maid replied.

SECOND DAY AT JUAREZ.
By Dee Lemier.
(Special to Breezy Bits.)

JUAREZ, Nov 28.—Track fast, weather threatening. Fourteen generals and one private cut in today, livening things up a bit. The feature of the day's program was the "Annihilation Handicap" from here to Chihuahua. Orozco, Salazar, Mercado, Villa and other well known performers were entered. The Huerta stable drew the heavy play from those who figured speed more than endurance. Also, the Huerta entry had less weight to carry. Orozco, ridden by General Remorse, beat the barrier and led the field for the first mile, when he blew up and was caught by the fast-coming Villa. Salazar weakened under punishment and fell back in the ruck. Carranza and General Chao got up just in time to be inside the money. They were closely followed by Press Photographer and War Correspondent. Moving Picture Operator was set down for rough tactics.

Tomorrow's best bet — Frejoles across the board.

Probably the high altitude affected Sailor Petroskey's sea legs, or maybe he was winking when Dillon shinwrecked him. We are all impatience to learn the alibi.

Word comes from New York that they may bar Jess Willard from that state, thus shattering another fond delusion. We thought they had.

THE ALMOST CHAMP.

Two years ago he stoked his gash
With frizzled beans and question hash,
And boned his friends for twobits cash
And deemed himself in clover.

But since he rocked some hopes to rest
He gloves his hams, and sports a vest
And oils his wool, and does his best
To mold his features over.

The gook who fed his map free stew
Now tells the waiter that he'll chew
On "Pomme de terre" and "rien d'tout,"
And quaff some '60 wine.
Once every year he takes a bath
And buys himself a better half,
And trains his girlish voice to laugh
With melody divine.

It bores him that he has to soil
His hands on fighters who must toil
And do their best his map to spoil,
Also to douse his lamp.

And thus we see the moral speaks
If you would be like these swell geeks
Go poke some geezers on the beaks
And be an almost champ.

ANGELS GETS SENATOR.

Outfielder Allen, a busher who was signed by the Washington Americans, has been turned over to the Los Angeles club for farming. Clark Griffith thinks the youngster has the stuff to make him a first-class star.

ORIGINALS CONFIDENT THEY WILL 'COME BACK'

The Oakland Originals, who lost to the Yosemites yesterday, 9-7, take their defeat lightly, and are fully confident of performing their usual stunt of redeeming their laurels in the second game played.

The Originals will play the All-Vallejos at Vallejo on December 7, and then on Sunday, December 14, they line up again against the Yosemites at Grove street park for a Sunday afternoon struggle.

The Originals are inclined to attribute yesterday's defeat to injuries which forced Bruzzone and Stewart from the line-up, and to the fact that an inexperienced substitute was used.

It is announced that George Incell will return to the Originals for the next game. Incell will play at half, with Kiser retaining Oliver at full back.

RIVERS TOO STRONG FOR CROSS

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 28.—Joe Rivers had little difficulty in getting a decision from Leach Cross in their 20-round go here yesterday afternoon. The local New Yorker took a world of punishment, the Mexican getting an even break in 17 of the 20, while of the other three, one was even and two gave Cross a slight advantage on points. Just after Referee George Blake had hoisted Rivers' mitt as the victor, Cross told his interviewers that his New York bout with Ritchie and his coast [illegible] Rivers was the best thing he had ever met, saying that he could hit harder than Ritchie, Brown or Murphy, and that he deserved another chance at the champion.

Rivers dropped the little dog to the canvas on two different occasions, sending him to the mat in the fourth with a left jolt to the chin, which assisted Leach in remaining there for the count of nine. Cross went down again in the twelfth from a right and left to the jaw, and was being continually staggered by blows to the jaw. Cross made a game attempt to get his man in the nineteenth, when he landed a nice right to Joe's chin. The Mexican appeared to weaken under the blow, and Cross proceeded to go right after him. He landed pretty well at will, but his punches [illegible] decision was the only thing possible. [illegible] saw the affair

SAILOR EASY PICKING FOR DILLON

BUTTE, Mont., Nov. 28.—Jack Dillon of Indianapolis won a decision yesterday afternoon from Sailor Petroskey of San Francisco at the end of 12 rounds of the fastest and hardest milling Butte fight fans have seen in years.

Dillon worked like a fighting machine from gong to gong, his arms operating piston-like against Petroskey's body. Petroskey took a world of punishment, but was not in Dillon's class.

In the eighth Dillon knocked the sailor [illegible] and in the rounds following rocked him repeatedly.

ALAS, POOR BILL, WE KNEW HIM WELL

Walter McCredie, manager of the Portland Coast league team is dickering for the disposal of Bill Lindsay to either the Toledo or New Orleans clubs. In case of any hitch from the Coast league, Walt will let Lindsay go to the Cleveland club, which will in turn transfer Bill to some minor club.

NAVY GOAT CONFIDENT IT WILL BUTT ARMY MULE OFF GRIDIRON

Thousands of Spectators Pour Into New York for Tomorrow's Event.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—The weather for the Army-Navy football game here tomorrow will be "partly cloudy, with moderate wind," according to the official forecast today. The assurance of suitable playing conditions is not certain, as local sport [illegible] threatened for today, which if heavy would make a soggy field.

The thousands of spectators pouring into the city were satisfied however, that the weather would not mar the usual brilliant assemblage at this annual social and sporting fixture.

The [illegible] who were the first to pitch camp here last night, had a good night's rest, and the men looked today like so many pictures of physical perfection. Eight of the midshipmen are over six feet tall, and nearly all approach the giant stature. This morning the players took a little exercise on the roof of their hotel, and they planned to indulge in an hour's secret practice at the Polo Grounds this afternoon.

The air of confidence pervading the camp was modestly reflected by all from Lieut. Commander Roger Williams, [illegible] had the important post of custodian of the official Navy goat, and the mascot [illegible] its ability to butt the Army mule off the the field tomorrow. While this confidence was in a great part shared by the most disinterested followers of the game, the Army enthusiasts, who were expecting their favorites to arrive from West Point before noon, were by no means disheartened by the reputed supremacy of their rivals.

The Army team was also reported at its best, and such consistent improvement in play was said to have been made during the final week's preparation that the midshipmen might find the bottom knocked out of their confidence after a few scrimmages. Those who want to see the Army win also have the satisfaction of pointing to the many surprises that have been shown in football scores generally this season and warned their enthusiastic rivals today that perhaps the last game of the season would furnish one of those surprises with an Army victory.

WOULD PLACE COIN ON PLAYING ABILITY

Something rare in the history of baseball is the proposition of Babe Reams, who is at present connected with the Butte club, and who wants to get into the Coast league with Judge McCredie's Ducks. Negotiations for the transfer of the younger have been going on between the two clubs, but a difference of 200 plunks brought up a hitch. The Butte owners wanted 200 shekels spot cash more than McCredie could see.

Reams wanted to give Reams a trytout and if he made good, then pay up. But the Butte owners couldn't see it that way. Anyway, Reams now comes forward with the proposition that he will put 100 plunks of the amount if given an opportunity to show his worth in the Coast circuit. If he makes good, and he is mighty certain he will, then he wants Mac to refund the $100. If he don't—well then goodbye to the 100.

Logan had considerable difficulty in making the weight. He had to go on the road in the morning to make the required notch, and this apparently weakened him.

Johnny Dundee of New York had the better of nine rounds of a 10-round no-decision bout at New Orleans last night with Charlie White of Chicago. The other round was even. At the end of the second round White seemed to be in trouble, and between the second and third rounds the lights in the theater where the fight was staged went out and the house was in darkness for 36 minutes. The fighters weighed in at 130 pounds.

In the first preliminary, Norman Stone of Los Angeles and Stockyards Murphy of Chicago fought six rounds to a draw. The second preliminary, a 10-round bout between Willie Robinson and "Bubbles" Robinson, ended in a draw.

3. Classes for study and interpretation of rules and instruction in the science of playing will be held regularly.
4. No man can be represented on more than one team or more than one division.
5. No man will be allowed to play out of his class.
6. Every man is asked to participate, whether he knows the game or not, whether he classes himself a good or poor player.
7. It will be the object of the instructors to induce every man to play and teach all who desire to take part.
8. No man must expect to play basketball unless registered in some one of the teams.
9. Games played will be of uniform length of time in the respective divisions.
10. All games will be played on regular evenings according to schedule.

AMATEUR BASEBALL

All the games in the Rockridge league scheduled for Bay View park yesterday morning were postponed owing to wet grounds. The Great Western Power Co. and the Kahn Bros. teams tried to put a game on but after playing five innings decided to call the game off as the grounds were unsafe, being so wet.

The game between the Great Western Power Co. and the Pacific Gas will be played at Fruitvale recreation park, Saturday, December 6, at 2 p. m. Owing to the great rivalry existing between these two teams this should be a great game. The Power Co. will pitch Jean Brown while the Gas Co. will use Joe Butler on the mound.

At the regular meeting of the board of directors of the Oakland suburban midwinter league it was decided to have the Twenty-third avenue merchants the home team at San Leandro here after replacing the Live Oaks.

This change was made for the betterment of the league and give the fans of San Leandro a chance to see a winning team in action every Sunday.

The Merchants are at present tied for first place with the Heintz Clothiers while the Live Oaks are in last position and could not seem to get started, although the people of San Leandro supported them. It was thought to be a good plan to give a leading team to [illegible]

This Sunday will see a fight for first place honors between the Merchants and the Heintz Clothiers and rattling good contest is looked for, as it will mean the lead and as there are but five more games to be played every game counts a great deal from now on.

The Merchants have a fast team and play real baseball all the time. They have a fast infield in Hunter, Holstrum, Rauman and Cowan, while the outfield is comprised of Kerston, Brown and Hunter with Moir and Wolfrom for their battery.

The Heintz team presents one of the most formidable lineups in the bush circles and leads the league in batting, scoring runs and stolen bases, having gathered 60 hits in four games. The infield is made up with Allen, Smith, Timerola and Devine, with Leahy, Kaylor and one of the pitchers in the outfield. Joe Devine and Lefty Monahan do the twirling and "Goat" Lyons is behind the bat.

The Ambrose Tailors meet the Dimond Grocers at Fruitvale, Sunday afternoon, and a good contest is looked for when these clubs hook up. D. Moir for the Grocers is in great form while Bernalacky for the Tailors is pitching a nice article of ball.

The Tribunes and Live Oaks clash at Fruitvale, Sunday morning, at 10:30, the Live Oaks having strengthened their team will present a good lineup, while the Tribunes have now hit their true form and threaten to make trouble for the leaders.

Van Haltren will umpire the game at San Leandro between the Merchants and Heintz Clothiers while Jake Baumgartner will probably work the two games at Fruitvale.

Yesterday before a crowd of 500 fans the Ambrose Tailors went down to defeat at the hands of the Oakland Coast league team by a score of 6 to 2. Martin and Baldwin did the battery work for the Tailors, while Malarkey and Schimph worked for the Coasters. Martin allowed but seven scattered hits and fanned seven men.

"Y" PENTHALON AT BERKELEY, DEC. 5

The Inter-Y. M. C. A. Pentathalon is to be held on the Berkeley floor December 5. Teams representing Berkeley, Oakland, San Francisco and San Jose Y. M. C. A.'s will compete, with five men apiece in the five following events. Fence vault, shot put, high jump, three broad jumps and mile run. The San Francisco team has been training considerably and are expecting to bring back the honors to their Association. This event tests the all-round ability of the men, both in agility and strength.

ALL - NORTH DEFEATS ALL-SOUTH

STANFORD, Nov. 28. — A kick from placement by "Mickey" Forbes of Boone's Military Academy following a catch by Brother "Stey" on the All-Southern California high school, gave a 3 to 0 victory to the All-Northern high squad over the All-Southerners yesterday afternoon on Stanford turf. That the teams were certainly evenly matched is exemplified by the fact that neither team succeeded in crossing the other's line. Graves of the Oakland High school played a particularly nice game as did Johnson of Berkeley.

SOCCER TEAMS PLAY A TIE AT BERKELEY

The soccer match between the university teams of California and Stanford at Berkeley yesterday ended in a 1 to 1 tie. Up to 10 minutes before the final whistle blew the Cardinal players led by a score of 1 to 0, when a rally by California put across the tying tally. This was the second game of the series, the first of which was won by Stanford at Stanford on November 8 by a 1 to 0 score. The third game will be played February 22. They lined up as follows:

California—Shafor, goal. Davidson, back; Holmes, back; Cook, half; Miller half; Kellas, half; Isaacs, forward; Dozier, forward; Mayer, forward; Mills, forward; Thorpe, forward.

Stanford — Butcher, goal; Blodgett back; Glass, Back, Hughes, half, Steinhart, half; Dutton, half, Clawson, forward; Fyfe, forward; Higgins, forward, Pellas, forward, Pratt, forward.

BLUE AND GOLD HELD TO TIE BY U. S. C.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 28. — California University and the University of Southern California ruggers fought to a 3 to 3 tie in a "rough house" game yesterday afternoon at Bovard field. From start to finish there was almost continuous slugging on both sides.

The game was closely fought, with neither side showing to particular advantage. The ball was kept near the center of the field most of the time.

The northerners scored in the first half, when Montgomery, breakaway, kicked a field goal from the U. S. C. 25-yard line. The first half ended California 3, U. S. C. 0.

The second half of the game found the Methodist team on the aggressive. Two attempts were made by U. S. C. to kick field goals, but they both fell short. A long dribbling rush, followed by a snappy passing attack, allowed K. Haney, left wing on the U. S. C. team, to cross the California goal line for the only try made in the entire game.

HOWDEN TAKES LONG EVENT IN SAN JOSE

Watson Howden, crack long-distance runner of the Oakland Y. M. C. A., won the four-mile modified marathon race in the San Jose Mercury track and field meet held at Santa Clara yesterday. He took the lead in the last mile, and was an easy winner. Swope, Johnson and Carter of the Oakland Association, finished sixth, seventh and eighth, respectively.

[illegible] second place in the 440; V. E. Brown came in third in the mile, and C. B. Jones finished third in the 220.

Stanford University athletes won the meet. Stanford scored 57 points; San Jose Y. M. C. A. 45, Santa Clara University 18, Oakland Y. M. C. A. 10, University of California 4, Humboldt High School 2.

HAYWARD HIGH LOSE TO NATIONALS

The Hayward high rugby football team proved easy picking for the National club of Berkeley in a contest played yesterday afternoon in Hayward, the Berkeleyans emerging victorious with a 23 to 9 score. Both teams put up a fast exhibition, although the Berkeleyans were seldom in danger. Jardine, Hoffman and Stevens scintillated for the victors while "Fido" and Browning starred for the Haywardites.

The victors lined up as follows: Fenton, Lind, Muldoon, Richardson, Mathews, Thompson, Wikander and Priest, forwards; Bond (captain) half; Jardine and Hoffman, five-eighths; Stevens, center three; Davis and Searby wings and Chalmers, full.

The Oakland High school rugby team [illegible] afternoon at the old Grove street ball park with the Sacramento High school team, preliminary to the Cal[illegible] state championship. The game will be called at 3 o'clock. Coach Price is confident the local players will give a good account of themselves. Black, the former U. C. star, will referee.

The San Francisco team has been training considerably and are expecting to bring back the honors to their Association. # STOCK MARKET AT STANDSTILL

Dealings on Contracted Scale Leave Most Prices of Securities Unmoved.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—With dealings on a contracted scale traders found it difficult to move prices today, except in a few isolated places. Amalgamated was sold speculatively on the halt in the demand. The outward movement of gold continued, $3,100,000 being sent to Canada and $600,000 to San Francisco. The outlook for depletion of surplus reserves on this account were reflected in the money market. Call money, after opening at 5 per cent, rose to 8 per cent. The general movement of stocks was narrowly narrow and the market most of the time was at a standstill.

The previous rise of a point in Union Pacific was canceled when the entire market fell off rather more decisively on the jump in call money to 10 per cent.

STEAL AUTO, ABANDON IT, AND MAKE ESCAPE

SUISUN, Nov. 28. — Two men dressed in yellow oilskin clothing and caps broke into the garage of W. H. Taylor and stole an auto belonging to P. L. Campbell.

They drove to the hardware store of Henry Goosen in Fairfield and, breaking in, took three revolvers and three watches, and filled the magazines of two [illegible] left them in the store.

The auto stopped in front of R. D. Smith's store and could not be started, and as it was nearly daylight the men abandoned the machine and took to the fields afoot. No trace of them has been found.

Three boxes of dynamite were stolen from Cement, four miles away Tuesday night, and it is thought all these things were being collected by the burglars preparatory to rifling the safe of some bank or large store in this section.

The Drama of Job To Be Portrayed

MRS. JAMES HAZLETT.

Mrs. James Hazlett of San Francisco will give her dramatic reading of "Job" in the First Congregational church of [illegible] o'clock.

This will be the talented lady's second appearance in Oakland, her first recital occurring last spring. The impression created at that time was so favorably commented upon that those who did not attend have asked that the reader's remarkable interpretation of this great drama be repeated.

Mrs. Hazlett's work is of an exceptional order, her fine stage presence, her quiet grace, her apparent self possession lending favorable conditions for her recital. She has given the Book of Job special study, and embodies the conclusions of the best scholarships in her work.

The drama of Job is considered the finest piece of literature ever composed, and its portrayal by this educated and cultured woman is a rare treat. Her treatment of the story of the unfortunate rich man is unique, yet powerful—the pathos and dignity of human life intermingled with that of the subject of the character of the divine drama.

The lady has appeared before the dramatic societies of San Francisco, and also before the annual assembly of the Chautauqua held at Pacific Grove in July last.

OVER THOUSAND IN 'POSTAL' COLLEGE

Extension Courses of the University Attracting Large Numbers.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, Nov. 28.—Already 1055 students have enrolled for the correspondence courses started eight weeks ago by the College of Agriculture. Six such courses are now being given by the Division of Agricultural Education—alfalfa, poultry husbandry, walnut culture, citrus fruits, grape growing and onion raising. Other courses are being prepared. All these agricultural courses are free to any one who will write to the College of Agriculture.

The correspondence students express eagerness to go on with other courses. The instruction is exceedingly practical, for the courses are planned to meet the actual needs of farmers or others expecting to live on the farm who desire specific and detailed information regarding the raising of particular crops of animals.

A number of correspondence courses in English are now announced by the University Extension Division. Miss Elsie Sinclair has been appointed instructor in English in charge of corresponding courses. She has had varied experience as the head of the English Department in a high school, as principal of St. Johns Ladies' College in Winnipeg and as a critic. The correspondence courses in English will include individual courses in "Correct Usage," grammar, rhetoric, English prose, style and the "History of English Literature."

LIE IS PASSED BEFORE JUDGE BY ATTORNEYS

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 28.—"If you say that, you are a liar," said Samuel T. Bush, a lawyer to Attorney Arthur Barendt, in Judge Mogan's court today. Whereupon the latter fired back, "My word is as good as yours. You are a liar."

"I want you to understand that this is no bar room," vehemently said the court. "You are guilty of contempt of court and if there are not immediate apologies I will fine you both and commit you to jail until the fines are paid."

Both gentlemen made a race to the bench to apologize and were purged of the charge.

Bush was in court on the complaint of his wife, Rose, that he had not paid her the $75 alimony in advance. Bush was ordered to hand over the coin by the 15th of each month.

ELKS SCRAMBLE TO GET TAMALES FOR FEASTERS

ALAMEDA, Nov. 28.—There was an incident at the dance of the Alameda Elks' club Wednesday evening, which was not on the cards. And it was all on account of the fact that entertainment committee conceived, at the eleventh hour, the notion that tamales would be particularly pleasing.

The committee ordered 100 tamales and announced in the late hours of the evening that they would be served at the close of the dance in the rathskellar. The demand became so great that it was found necessary to dispatch a messenger to Oakland for 50 more.

The Elks set the tables in the rathskellar, and a merry time was had by the tamale-eaters.

The dance was one of the most enjoyable ever held by the lodge. The clubhouse was elaborately decorated to represent a barn, the occasion being a barn dance. The costumes were unique and in many cases amusing.

MAY LOSE LIFE FOR BRAVE ACT OF RESCUE

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 28.—Dr. Patrick J. Byrne, coroner of Cuyahoga county, may forfeit his life as a result of saving a crippled man from being killed by a street car yesterday. The cripple's crutches slipped as he attempted to cross the tracks and he fell in front of a [illegible] approaching car. Dr. Byrne rushed forward, seized the man and carried him to the sidewalk. In doing so he overtaxed his strength and is suffering from abdominal injuries. He is in a critical condition.

PANAMA OBSERVES 92D ANNIVERSARY

Republic Has Been Independent of Spain Almost Century.

PANAMA, Nov. 28.—While looking forward to the opening of the Isthmian canal and anticipating a great increase in her already established prosperity, Panama is today observing the ninety-second anniversary of her independence from Spain. It was the last of the South American colonies to shake off its European rule when on November 28, 1821, it declared independence from Spain.

It then became for a time the department of the isthmus of the now Republic of Colombia, but its history for many years continued to be one of strife until 1903, when independence from Colombia was effected.

Some of the milestones in Panama's history after the independence from Spain in 1821 are the completion of the Panama railroad in 1855, the start of the construction of the Panama canal in [illegible] when Panama virtually became a protectorate of the United States.

Her shores which were the mecca of pirates until Spain built a costly wall around the capital in 1674, will soon virtually furnish a peaceful calling port for the shipping of the world.

MINERS MAY HAVE BEEN MURDERED UPON TRAIL

SEATTLE, Nov. 28. — Mail advices received yesterday from Fairbanks, Alaska, say that friends of John Craven [illegible] miners of the Iditarod, fear these men were murdered, and that government officials are trying to solve the question.

A communication was received in Fairbanks, November 1, by United States Attorney James J. Crossley from United States Attorney Rodey of Nome in which the information was given that Craven, a graduate of Columbia University, and Waite, a Californian, had started from Iditarod in June, 1911, headed for the outside over the trail.

Nothing has ever been heard of them, and when the news of the recent discovery of two bodies near Willow creek, on the Fairbanks-Valdez trail, was spread about, friends began an investigation. J. F. Warren, special United States deputy marshal, has been detailed to make a thorough investigation.

ACTRESS' TRAGIC DEATH TO BE INVESTIGATED

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 28.—Coroner Hartwell is today conducting an investigation into the circumstances surrounding the tragic death of 15-year-old Frances Pierce, a motion picture actress, who was appearing in the chorus of a local theater. Miss Pierce, who was a sister of Esther Conrad, who figured in the sensational shooting of W. D. Stokes in New York a few years ago, died at the Good Samaritan Hospital, following injuries sustained in an automobile collision Sunday. The inquest will be held tomorrow.

Miss Pierce was riding to her home in Pasadena in an automobile owned and driven by Victor Levy of Los Angeles, Sunday, following her appearance on the stage Saturday night. While running at a moderate pace along Huntington drive, Levy says, the machine collided with a garbage wagon. He escaped uninjured, while Miss Pierce sustained a fracture of the skull and arm and other injuries. Levy rushed her to the hospital, where she died.

Levy is the Los Angeles representative of Jules Levy of San Francisco. He lives at the Hartmann apartments.

Good Roads for Telephone Talk

THE good roads movement has not been confined to the highways. The Bell Telephone System has covered the country with "good roads" for telephone talk, reaching every nook and corner.

There are more than 12,000,000 miles of these "good roads" in the Bell System. Some of them are strung in single pairs or in aerial cables from pole to pole; others are hidden away in underground conduits; they cross lofty mountain chains; pass under mighty rivers and reach the heart of each industrial and commercial center of the nation and to the most remote habitations.

These "good telephone roads" of the Bell System are all operated by one system, under one policy, forming one continuous system of intercommunication. They connect more than 7,500,000 telephones for universal service.

'FOOD FREE FROM DUTY,' IS POLICY

Sir Wilfrid Laurier Suggests a Plan to Make Living Cheaper.

HAMILTON, Ont., Nov. 28.—A policy of free food was suggested by Sir Wilfrid Laurier, at a banquet given here last night in his honor by the Federated Liberal Club of Ontario. The high cost of living, not the purchasing of dreadnaughts, was the pressing problem of the day, he said—the problem that confronted workingmen, mechanic, artisan, clerk, professional man and clergyman.

"It is true I might say something about reciprocity," said Sir Wilfrid, "but I have no recriminations to make. The problem is before us. Let us bury the past and look to the future. There our duty lies. The situation requires action—prompt, unhesitating action. The policy I give you at this moment, the policy [illegible] ought to support and the policy I believe it to be the duty of the government immediately to inaugurate, is a policy of absolutely free food—food free from custom duty."

SAYS PAINTING IS EMBODIMENT OF EVIL

LONDON, Nov. 27. — Leonardo da Vinci's "Mona Lisa," the painting stolen from the Paris Louvre some time ago, is the embodiment of evil, according to Kane S. Smith, a lecturer at the University of London, who spoke on "Beauty and Morality" yesterday.

He contended that the celebrated picture was "one of the most acuveiy evil pictures ever painted, the embodiment of all the evell the painter could imagine, put into the most attractive form he could devise.

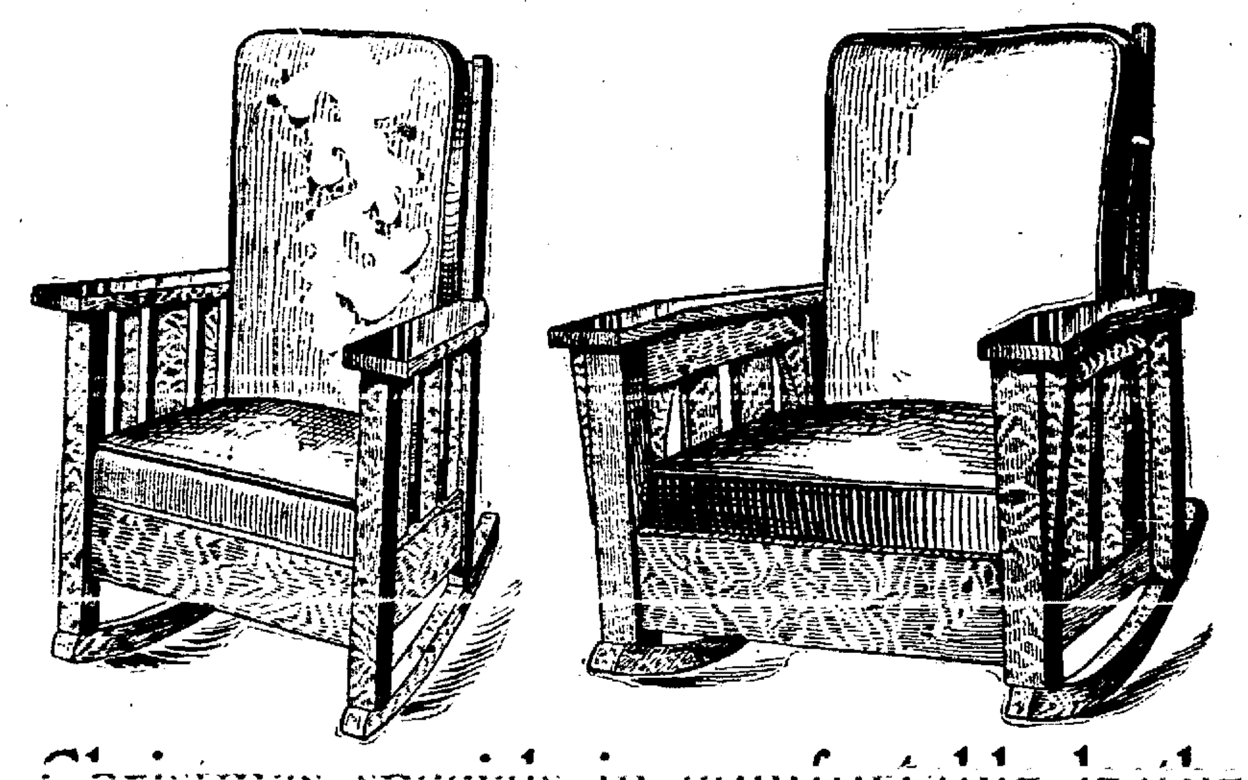

"It is an exquisite piece of painting, but if you look at it long enough to get into its atmosphere, I think you will be glad to escape from its influence. It has an atmosphere of undefinable evil."

NEW AEROPLANE GUN GIVEN DEMONSTRATION

LONDON, Nov. 28. — The wonderful new machine gun invented by Lieutenant-Colonel Isaac N. Lewis of the Coast Artillery, U. S. A., was demonstrated at the Bisley Rifle Range yesterday in the presence of members of the British army council and representatives of various foreign states.

The gun was shown to be efficient when fired at or from aeroplanes. It fires 500 shots a minute from almost any position and with or without a tripod.

Lieutenant-Colonel Lewis, a recognized authority on ordnance, was formerly on the staff of Lieutenant-General Miles. His invention, other ordnance experts say, is the first automatic gun that can be fired from an aeroplane.
